This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

+ Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.

+ Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.

+ Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.

+ Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

Google's mission is to organize the world's information and to make it universally accessible and useful. Google Book Search helps readers discover the world's books while helping authors and publishers reach new audiences. PREFACE.

THE need of a comprehensive Collection of Anthems for the use of our Cathedral and Collegiate Churches has long been felt, and it is hoped that this volume will meet the want. In 1852 a book of anthems was carefully compiled by the Rev. John Finlayson, M.A., Prebendary of S. Michael's, Christ Church Cathedral, Dublin, in which Cathedral it has been used up to the present day, as well as in S. Patrick's, in the Chapel Royal, and in the Chapel of Trinity College, Dublin. Since then, however, large additions have been made to cathedral music, and the book, excellent as it is, fails to supply all that is needed. It has, however, with Mr. Finlayson's kind permission, been incorporated into this enlarged collection. The words of anthems in use in S. Patrick's Cathedral, Armagh; S. Columb's, Derry; S. Finbarr's, Cork; and S. Mary's, Limerick, have also been included; to which numerous anthems and selections from oratorios have been added.

The Committee* desire to express their obligations to the following:—

To Messrs. Novello, Ewer and Co., for very many original anthems and arrangements which are their copyright; to Messrs. Hutchings and Romer, for No. 207, entitled "Here, by Babylon's wave"; to

* At a meeting held in the Palace in April, 1876, under the presidency of His Grace the Archbishop of Dublin—the Dean of S. Patrick's, the Dean of the Chapel Royal, the Provost of Trinity College, the Rev. Precentor Seymour, the Rev. Prebendary Finlayson, and others being present—a Committee, consisting of the Dean of the Chapel Royal, the Precentors of the two Cathedrals and of Trinity College Chapel, together with the Prebendary of S. Michael's and the Succentor of S. Patrick's, was appointed to compile a Collection of Anthems for the use of our Cathedral and Collegiate Churches.

Joseph Robinson, Esq., for kind permission to use the words of the late Mrs. Robinson's Cantata, "God is Love." The Committee are indebted to the courtesy of the Precentors and Organists of several Cathedrals for special anthems contributed from their collections. Permission to print the selections from "Elijah," "Athalie," and "Eli" has been purchased from Mrs. Bartholomew.

The Committee are under deep obligation to Major George Arthur Crawford for his kindness in compiling the Biographical Index of Composers, and also for other valuable assistance rendered during the publication of this work.

And they particularly express their thanks to the Rev. Charles T. Ovenden, Succentor of S. Patrick's Cathedral, Dublin, for the great trouble which he has taken in preparing the book for publication. To him, beyond any one else, the undertaking owes its completion; and any measure of success it may attain. The Committee under whose responsibility the work is published very earnestly hope that it may promote the glory of God and the objects for which it is intended.

Committee.

THE VERY REV. H. H. DICKINSON, D.D.,
DEAN OF THE CHAPEL ROYAL,
AND PRECENTOR OF S. PATRICK'S CATHEDRAL, DUBLIN.

REV. EDWARD SEYMOUR, M.A.,
PRECENTOR OF CHRIST CHURCH CATHEDRAL, DUBLIN.

REV. JOHN FINLAYSON, M.A.,
PREBENDARY OF S. MICHAEL'S, CHRIST CHURCH CATHEDRAL, DUBLIN.

REV. J. P. MAHAFFY, F.T.C.D.,
PRECENTOR OF TRINITY COLLEGE CHAPEL, DUBLIN.

REV. CHARLES T. OVENDEN, M.A.,
SUCCENTOR OF S. PATRICK'S CATHEDRAL, DUBLIN, HON. SEC.

BOURGEOIS, LOUIS. Born in Paris at the beginning of the sixteenth century. Settled in Geneva in 1541, and succeeded Guillaume Franc as Master of the Choristers at St. Peter's, 1545. Returned to Paris in 1557, and was still living in 1561.

Recent researches have shown that Bourgeois was the musical editor of the French-Genevan Psalter from 1542 (when the first edition was published) until 1557. The psalm-tune known in England as the "Old Hundredth" appeared first as the melody of Psalm cxxxiv. in 1551 or 1552. Franc, to whom it has been often ascribed, also published an edition of the Psalms, of Marot and Beza, with tunes, in 1565, but this was a distinct work and intended for local use at Lausanne. The tunes in the French Psalter were given as melodies only, which were afterwards published with harmonies, by Goudimel, Le Jeune, and others; but these composers were in no other way connected with the Psalter, nor were their harmonised versions of the Genevan tunes ever used in the public worship of the Reformed churches. Many of the tunes appear to have been adapted by Bourgeois from popular melodies of the time. It is still uncertain who succeeded him as editor of the Psalter from 1557 until its completion in 1562.

CATHEDRAL ANTHEMS.

1.

(Verse S.A.) Abide with me; fast falls the eventide;
The darkness deepens; Lord, with me abide;
When other helpers fail, and comforts flee,
Help of the helpless, then abide with me.

(Verse S.A.T.) I need Thy presence every passing hour;
What but Thy grace can foil the tempter's power?
Who like Thyself my guide and stay can be?
Through cloud and sunshine, Lord, abide with me.

(Chorus.) I fear no foe with Thee at hand to bless;
Ills have no weight, and tears no bitterness;
Where is death's sting? where, grave, thy victory?
I triumph still if Thou abide with me.

(The Woman of Samaria.) Sir W. S. BENNETT.

JOB xxii.—21. (Verse A.) Acquaint thyself with God, and be at peace with Him, and lay up His words in thine heart. 23. If thou return to the Almighty, put away iniquity from thee. Then shalt He be thy defence and thy delight. Thou shalt make thy prayer unto Him, and He will hear thee. (Chorus.) The Lord will deliver the righteous. He will save the humble man.

GREENE.

PSALM C. (Full.) All people that on earth do dwell,
Sing to the Lord with cheerful voice;
Him serve with fear, His praise forth tell,
Come ye before Him and rejoice.

For why? the Lord our God is good,
His mercy is for ever sure;
His truth at all times firmly stood,
And shall from age to age endure.

1. O be joyful in the Lord, all ye lands; serve the Lord with gladness, and come before His presence with a song.
2. Be ye sure that the Lord He is God; it is He that hath made us, and not we ourselves; we are His people, and the sheep of His pasture.
3. O go your way into His gates with thanksgiving, and into His courts with praise. Be thankful unto Him, and speak good of His Name.
4. For the Lord is gracious, His mercy is everlasting; and His truth endureth from generation to generation.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost; as it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

Praise God, from Whom all blessings flow;
Praise Him, all creatures here below;
Praise Him above, angelic host;
Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.

POLE.

PSALM C. (Full.) All people that on earth do dwell,
Sing to the Lord with cheerful voice;
Him serve with fear, His praise forth tell,
Come ye before Him and rejoice.

The Lord, we know, is God indeed;
Without our aid He did us make,
We are His flock, He doth us feed,
And for His sheep He doth us take.

O enter then His gates with praise,
Approach with joy His courts unto;
Praise, laud, and bless His Name always,
For it is seemly so to do.

For why? the Lord our God is good,
His mercy is for ever sure;
His truth hath always firmly stood,
And shall from age to age endure. Amen.

TALLIS.

PSALM XXII.—7. (Recit. T.) All they that see Him laugh Him to scorn; they shoot out their lips, and shake their heads, saying; 8. (Chorus.) He trusted in God, that He would deliver Him; let Him deliver Him if He delight in Him. lxix.—21. (Verse T.) Thy rebuke hath broken His heart; He is full of heaviness; He looked for some to have pity on Him, but there was no man, neither found He any to comfort Him. LAM. i.—12. Behold, and see if there be any sorrow like unto His sorrow. ISAIAH liii.—4, 5. (Chorus.) Surely He hath borne our griefs, and carried our sorrows. He was wounded for our transgressions, He was bruised for our iniquities; the chastisement of our peace was upon Him. 5. (Chorus.) And with His stripes we are healed. 6. (Chorus.) All we like sheep have gone astray; we have turned every one to his own way; and the Lord hath laid on Him the iniquity of us all.

PSALM cxlv.—10. (Full.) All Thy works praise Thee, O Lord, and Thy saints give thanks unto Thee. 11. They show the glory of Thy kingdom, and talk of Thy power. 15. The eyes of all wait upon Thee, and Thou givest them their meat in due season. 16. Thou openest Thine hand, and fillest all things living with plenteousness. 1 CHRON. xxix.—13. Now therefore, O God, we thank Thee, and praise Thy glorious Name.

THORNE.

ISAIAH liii.—6. (Full.) All we like sheep have gone astray; we have turned every one to his own way; and the Lord hath laid on Him the iniquity of us all. But ye shall go out with joy, and be led forth with peace. The mountains and hills shall break forth into singing. And all the trees of the field shall clap their hands. For the mouth of the Lord hath spoken it.

SPARK.

Full. (S.A.T.T.B.B.)

All ye who weep, O come unto Me: I will comfort you.
All ye who suffer, O come unto Me: I will console you.
All ye who mourn, O come unto Me: I am your peace.
All ye who die, O come unto Me for life eternal.

(Collect for the Third Sunday after the Epiphany.)

(Full.) Almighty and everlasting God, mercifully look upon our infirmities, and in all our dangers and necessities stretch forth Thy right hand to help and defend us; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

GIBBONS.

(Collect for the Thirteenth Sunday after Trinity.)

(Full.) Almighty and merciful God, of whose only gift it cometh that Thy faithful people do unto Thee true and laudable service, grant, we beseech Thee, that we may so faithfully serve Thee in this life that we fail not finally to attain Thy heavenly promises; through the merits of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Sir JOHN GOSS.

Acts vi.—15. (Recit. S.) And all that sat in the council looked steadfastly on him, and saw his face as it had been the face of an angel. vii.—1. Then said the High Priest, Are these things so? And Stephen said (Verse T.), Men, brethren, and fathers, hearken to me. The God of glory appeared unto our fathers, delivered the people out of their afflictions, and gave them favour; but they understood it not. He sent Moses into Egypt, for He saw their afflictions and heard their groaning; but they refused him, and would not obey his word, but thrust him from them, and sacrificed to senseless idols. Solomon built Him an house; albeit the Most High God dwelleth not in temples which are made with hands; for heaven is His throne, and earth is but His footstool. Hath not His hand made all these things? Ye hard of heart, ye always do resist the Holy Ghost: as did your fathers, even so do ye. Which of the Prophets have not your fathers persecuted? And they have slain them which showed before the coming of Him, the Just One, with whose murder ye have here been stained. Ye have received the law by the disposition of angels, and ye have not obeyed it. xxi.—36. (Chorus.) Take him away. For now the holy Name of God he hath blasphemed; and who blasphemes Him, he shall perish. Acts vii.—56. (Recit. T.) Lo, I see the heavens opened, and the Son of Man sitting at the right hand of God. S. Matt. xxiii.—37. (Verse S.) Jerusalem, Jerusalem, thou that killest the Prophets, and stonest them which are sent unto thee, how often would I have gathered unto Me thy children, and ye would not. Acts vii.—57, 58. (Recit. T.) Then they ran upon him with one accord, and cast him out of the city, and stoned him, and cried aloud: Lev. xxiv.—16. (Chorus.) Stone him to death. He blasphemes God; and who does so shall surely perish. Stone him to death. Acts vii.—59, 60. (Recit. T.) And they stoned him; and he kneeled down, and cried aloud, Lord, lay not this sin to their charge. Lord Jesus, receive my spirit. And when he had said this he fell asleep.

(Chorale.) To Thee, O Lord, I yield my spirit,
Who break'st in love this mortal chain;
My life I but from Thee inherit,
And death becomes my chiefest gain.
In Thee I live, in Thee I die,
Content, for Thou art ever nigh.

(St. Paul.) Mendelssohn.

12.

Gen. i.—31. (Recit. B.) And God saw everything that He had made, and behold it was very good: and the heavenly choir, in song divine, thus closed the sixth day:

(Chorus.) Achieved is the glorious work;
The Lord beholds it, and is pleased.
In lofty strains let us rejoice,
Our song let be the praise of God.

(Verse S.T.B.) On Thee each living soul awaits,
From Thee, O Lord, all seek their food.
Thou openest Thy hand,
And fillest all with good.

(Verse B.) But when Thy face, O Lord, is hid,
With sudden terror they are struck;
Thou tak'st their breath away,
They vanish into dust.

(Verse S.T.B.) Thou sendest forth Thy breath again,
And life with vigour fresh returns;
Revived earth unfolds new strength
And new delights.

(Chorus.) Achieved is the glorious work;
Our song let be the praise of God.
Glory to His Name for ever.
He, sole, on high, exalted reigns. Hallelujah.

ACTS ix.—2. (Recit. A.) And he journeyed with companions towards Damascus, and had authority and command from the High Priest that he should bring them bound, men and women, unto Jerusalem. (Verse A.) But the Lord is mindful of His own, He remembers His children. Bow down before Him, ye mighty, for the Lord is near us. ACTS ix.—3. (Recit. T.B. and Chorus.) And as he journeyed he came near unto Damascus; when suddenly there shone around him a light from heaven. 4. And he fell to the earth; and he heard a voice saying unto him, Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou Me? 5. And he said, Lord, who art Thou? And the Lord said to him, I am Jesus of Nazareth, Whom thou persecutest. 6. And he said, trembling and astonished, Lord what wilt Thou have me do? The Lord said to him, Arise, and go into the city, and there thou shalt be told what thou must do. ISAIAH lx.—1. (Chorus.) Rise up! arise! rise, and shine! for thy light comes, and the glory of the Lord doth appear upon thee. 2. Behold, now, total darkness covereth the kingdoms, and gross darkness the people. But upon thee riseth the mighty Lord; and the glory of the Lord appeareth upon thee.

ISAIAH ii.—2. (Verse T.) And it shall come to pass in the last days, that the mountain of the Lord's house shall be established in the top of the mountains, and shall be exalted above the hills; and all the nations shall flow unto it. 3. And many people shall go and say, Come ye, and let us go up to the mountain of the Lord, to the house of the God of Jacob; and He will teach us of His ways, and we will walk in His paths: for out of Zion shall go forth the law, and the word of the Lord from Jerusalem. 4. (Verse B.) And He shall judge among the nations, and shall rebuke many people: they shall beat their swords into plowshares, and their spears into pruninghooks: nation shall not lift up sword against nation, neither shall they learn war any more. 5. (Chorus.) O house of Jacob, come ye, and let us walk in the light of the Lord.

HORAN.

REV. vii.—9. (Recit. T.) And lo! a mighty host of all nations and people stood before the throne and the Lamb. Of spotless white was every garment: in every hand a palm was borne. They fell before the throne of God with holy fear. 14. (Verse S.) These, who passed through heavy tribulation, have washed their robes and made them white in the blood of the Lamb. They stand before God's throne, and serve Him day and night; and the Lamb shall lead them to fountains of living waters, and God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes. 17. (Verse S.A.T.B.) Yes, every tear and every sorrow the Lord shall wipe away from their eyes: nor sin, nor death, nor pain, nor sorrow, shall there be known. He is our God, and we are His people. Hail, our Redeemer! hail! (Chorus.) Lord God of heaven and earth, we adore Thee! Blessing and power be Thine, our Redeemer! Thou art the Lord our God, and we are Thy people. Hail! our Redeemer, hail! (Verse S.T.) Forsake me not in this dread hour, O God most merciful! Thou art my hope, O Lord, give ear unto my prayer! O spare Thy servant, and cast him not away! If Thou forsake me, whither shall I flee? No friend is nigh, no arm to save, but only Thou, Almighty Lord of hosts. In Thee, O Lord, in Thee alone I trust! DEUT. iv.—29. (Chorus.) If with your whole hearts ye humbly seek Me, I will be found of you, saith the Lord; and if ye return to Me sincerely, I will receive you from all the ends of the earth. I will be your Father, and ye shall be My people; thus saith the Lord.

(The Last Judgment.) SPOHR.

ACTS ix.—29. (Recit. S.) And Paul came to the congregation, and preached freely the Name of Jesus Christ our Lord. xiii.—2. Then spake the Holy Ghost: Set ye apart Barnabas and Paul, for the work whereunto I have called them. 3. And when they had fasted and prayed, and laid their hands on them, they sent them away. 2 Cor. v.—20. (Verse T.B.) Now we are ambassadors in the name of Christ, and God beseeches you by us. Rom. x.—15. (Chorus.) How lovely are the messengers that preach us the gospel of peace! 18. To all the nations is gone forth the sound of their words; throughout all the lands their glad tidings.

1 Kings xix.—8. (Recit. A.) Arise, Elijah, for thou hast a long journey before thee. Forty days and forty nights shalt thou go; to Horeb, the mount of God. Isaiah xlix.—4. (Verse B.) O Lord, I have laboured in vain; yea, I have spent my strength for naught! lxiv.—1, 2. O that Thou wouldest rend the heavens, that Thou wouldest come down; that the mountains would flow down at Thy presence, to make Thy Name known to Thine adversaries, through the wonders of Thy works! lxiii.—17. O Lord, why hast Thou made them to err from Thy ways, and hardened their hearts that they do not fear Thee? O that I now might die! Psalm xxxvii.—7. (Verse A.) O rest in the Lord; wait patiently for Him, 4. And He shall give thee thy heart's desire. 5. Commit thy way unto Him, and trust in Him, and fret not thyself because of evil doers. S. Matt. xxiv.—13. (Chorus.) He that shall endure to the end, shall be saved.

(Elijah.) MENDELSSOHN.

Isaiah lx.—1. (Full.) Arise, shine, for thy light is come, and the glory of the Lord is risen upon thee. 2. For, behold, darkness shall cover the earth, and gross darkness the people. But the Lord shall arise upon thee, and His glory shall be seen upon thee. 3. And the Gentiles shall come to thy light, and kings to the brightness of thy rising.

Sir GEORGE J. ELVEY.

Isaiah lx.—1. (Verse S.A.T B. and Chorus.) Arise, shine, O Zion; for thy light is come, and the glory of the Lord is risen upon thee. 2. (Verse B.) Behold, the darkness shall cover the earth, and gross darkness the people. (Verse A.T. and Chorus). But the Lord shall arise upon thee, and His glory shall be seen upon thee. 3. (Verse T.) The Gentiles shall come to thy light, and kings to the brightness of thy rising. 19. (Verse S.) The sun shall be no more thy light by day; neither for brightness shall the moon give light unto thee: but the Lord shall be unto thee an everlasting light, and thy God thy glory. lxi.—10. (Verse S.A.T.B.) I will greatly rejoice in the Lord, my soul shall be joyful in my God: for He hath clothed me with the garments of salvation, He hath covered me with the robe of righteousness. (Chorus.) I will greatly rejoice in the Lord, my soul shall be joyful in my God.

PSALM xlvii.—1-3. Arise ye people, clap the hand,
(Full.) Exulting strike the chord;
Let every isle and every land
Confess the Almighty Lord.
How awful His mysterious name,
How high advanced His seat,
Who bids the nations own our claim,
And casts them at our feet.

He to our lot a land assigned,
His favoured Jacob's boast,
And blest with gifts of various kinds
Her health-encircled coast.
Hear, while the shouts wide-echoing round,
The ascending God proclaim,
The answering trump through heaven resound,
And shake its vaulted frame.

Sing to our God in loudest strain,
Perpetual praises sing;
O'er earth's wide bounds extends His reign;
O praise our God and King.
Prepare, prepare, with tuneful art,
In one assembled throng,
Your shares of harmonies to part,
And raise the heaven-taught song.

W. HAYES.

PSALM xcvi.—7. (Verse T.) Ascribe unto the Lord, O ye kindreds of the people; ascribe unto the Lord worship and power. 8. Ascribe unto the Lord the honour due unto His Name; bring presents and come into His courts. 9. O worship the Lord in the beauty of holiness; let the whole earth stand in awe of Him. 10. (Verse T.B.) Tell it out among the heathen that the Lord is King; and that it is He that hath made the round world so fast that it cannot be moved; and how that He shall judge the people righteously. (Chorus.) Tell it out among the heathen that the Lord is King. 11. (Verse B.) Let the heavens rejoice and let the earth be glad; let the sea make a noise and all that therein is. 12. Let the field be joyful, and all that is in it; then shall all the trees of the wood rejoice before the Lord. 13. (Verse S.A.T.B. and Chorus.) For He cometh, He cometh to judge the earth; and with righteousness to judge the world, and the people with His truth. Amen.

PSALM xcvi.—7. (Choral Recit. A.T.B.) Ascribe unto the Lord, O ye kindreds of the people; ascribe unto the Lord worship and power. 8. Ascribe unto the Lord the honour due unto His Name. 9. (Chorus.) Let the whole earth stand in awe of Him. 10. (Choral Recit. A.T.B.) Tell it out among the heathen that the Lord is King; and that He shall judge the people righteously. 9. (Verse S.S.S.A.) O worship the Lord in the beauty of holiness. 2. Sing to the Lord, and praise His Name: be telling of His salvation from day to day. 3. And His wonders unto all people. 5. (Chorus). As for the gods of the heathen, they are but idols. CXV.—4. (Choral Recit. S.A.T.B.) Their idols are silver and gold; even the work of men's hands. 5. They have mouths, and speak not; eyes have they, and see not. 6. They have ears, and hear not; noses have they, and smell not. 7. They have hands, and handle not; feet have they, and walk not; neither speak they through their throat. 8. (Verse A.T.B.) They that make them are like unto them; and so are all such as put their trust in them. 3. (Chorus.) As for our God, He is in heaven; He hath done whatsoever pleased Him. 12. The Lord hath been mindful of us, and He shall bless us: He shall bless the house of Israel, He shall bless the house of Aaron. 13. He shall bless them that fear the Lord, both small and great. 14. Ye are the blessed of the Lord; you and your children. 15. Ye are the blessed of the Lord, Who made heaven and earth.

PART I.

1 KINGS xvii.—1. (Recit. B.) As God the Lord of Israel liveth, before Whom I stand, there shall not be dew nor rain these years, but according to my word. JER. vii.—20. (Chorus.) Help, Lord! wilt Thou quite destroy us? The harvest now is over, the summer days are gone, and yet no power cometh to help us! Will then the Lord be no more God in Zion? LAMENT. iv.—4. (Choral Recit.) The deeps afford no water; and the rivers are exhausted! The suckling's tongue now cleaveth for thirst to his mouth: the infant children ask for bread, and there is no one breaketh it to feed them! LAMENT. i.—17. (Verse S.S. and Chorus.) Zion spreadeth her hands for aid, and there is neither help nor comfort. Lord! bow Thine ear to our prayer!

PART II.

JOEL ii.—13. (Recit. T.) Ye people, rend your hearts, and not your garments for your transgressions; even as Elijah hath sealed the heavens through the word of God. 12. I therefore say to you, Forsake your idols, return to God; for He is slow to anger, and merciful, and kind, and gracious, and repenteth Him of the evil. DEUT. iv.—29. (Verse T.) If with all your hearts ye truly seek Me, ye shall eve surely find Me. Thus saith our God. JOB xxiii.—3. Oh that I knew where I might find Him! that I might even come before His presence. DEUT. xxviii.—22. (Chorus.) Yet doth the Lord see it not; He mocketh at us; His curse hath fallen down upon us; His wrath will pursue us, till He destroy us! EXODUS xx.—5. For He, the Lord our God, He is a jealous God; and He visiteth all the father's sins on the children to the third and fourth generation of them that hate Him. 6. His mercies on thousands fall—fall on all them that love Him, and keep His commandments.

(Elijah.) MENDELSSOHN.

PSALM xlii.—1. (Verse S.A.T.B., or Full.) As pants the hart for cooling streams, so longs my soul for Thee, O God. 3. (Verse S.) Tears are my daily food; while thus they say, Where is now thy God? 4. (Verse T.) Now when I think thereupon, I pour out my heart by myself; for I went with the multitude, and brought them out into the house of God. 5. (Chorus.) In the voice of praise and thanksgiving, among such as keep holy-day.

(Chandos Anthems.) HANDEL.

PSALM xlii.—1, 2.

(Verse S. and Chorus.) As pants the hart for cooling streams
When heated in the chase,
So longs my soul, O God, for Thee,
And Thy refreshing grace.

(Verse S.) For Thee, my God, the living God,
My thirsty soul doth pine;
O when shall I behold Thy face,
Thou Majesty divine.

(Verse S. and Chorus.) As pants the hart for cooling streams
When heated in the chase,
So longs my soul, O God, for Thee,
And Thy refreshing grace.

(Calvary.) SPOHR.

26.

PSALM xlii.—1. (Verse S.S. or T.T.) As the hart panteth after the water-brooks; so my soul longeth after Thee, O God. 15. O put thy trust in God, my soul, for I will thank Him, for I will praise Him, Who is my hope and my salvation. Amen. MARCELLO.

PSALM xlii.—1. (Chorus.) As the hart pants after the water-brooks, so panteth my soul after Thee, O God. 6. (Chorus.) Why, my soul, art thou so vexed, and why art thou cast down in me? 7. Trust thou in God, for I will yet give Him great thanks, for the help of His good countenance. 8. (Verse S.) My God, within me is my soul cast down: therefore will I remember Thee at the mighty noise of the waters. 9. Deep calleth unto deep, at the noise of the water-spouts. All Thy waves and Thy billows are gone over me. 11. My God, my God, within me is my soul cast down. 10. (Verse S.T.T.B.B.) The Lord hath commanded His kindness in the daytime: in the night did I sing of Him, and made my prayer to the God of my life. 11. (Verse S.) My God, within me is my soul cast down: why hast Thou Thy servant forgotten, and why go I thus heavily, while my foe prevails? 14. (Chorus.) Why, my soul, art thou so vexed, and why art thou cast down in me? 15. Trust thou in God, for I will yet give Him great thanks for the help of His good countenance. Praised be the Lord, the God of Israel, from henceforth and for evermore.

ISAIAH lii.—1. (Chorus.) Awake, awake; put on thy strength, O Zion; put on thy beautiful garments, O Jerusalem, the holy city: for henceforth there shall no more come unto thee the uncircumcised and the unclean. 2. Shake thyself from the dust; arise, and sit down, O Jerusalem; loose thyself from the bands of thy neck, O captive daughter of Zion. 7. (Verse S.A.T.B.) How beautiful upon the mountains are the feet of him that bringeth good tidings, that publisheth peace, that publisheth salvation; that saith unto Zion, Thy God reigneth. 8. (Choral Recit. T.B.) Thy watchmen shall lift up the voice; with the voice together shall they sing, for they shall see eye to eye, when the Lord shall bring again Zion. 9. (Chorus.) Break forth into joy; sing together ye waste places of Jerusalem: for the Lord hath comforted His people, He hath redeemed Jerusalem. 10. The Lord hath made bare His holy arm in the eyes of all the nations; and all the ends of the earth shall see the salvation of our God. Hallelujah. Amen.

The Lord Jehovah is my strength and my song; He is also become my salvation. PSALM xxvi.—8. (Verse T.) Lord, I have loved the habitation of Thy house, and the place where Thine honour dwelleth. 6. I will wash mine hands in innocency, O Lord, and so will I go to Thine altar. cxix.—147. Early in the morning do I cry unto Thee, for in Thy word is my trust. xciv.—16. (Verse B.) Who will rise up with me against the wicked? or who will take my part against the evil doers? ISAIAH lvii.—20. The wicked are like the troubled sea when it cannot rest. 21. There is no peace, saith my God, to the wicked. PSALM cxv.—17. (Verse and Chorus.) The dead praise not Thee, O Lord, neither they that go down to the grave in silence. 18. But we will praise Thee, O God, from this time forth for evermore. Hallelujah! Amen.

PSALM xli.—1. (Verse A.T.B.) Blessed is he that considereth the poor and needy; the Lord shall deliver him in the time of trouble. 2. (Verse A.) The Lord preserve him, and keep him alive, that he may be blessed upon earth; and deliver not Thou him into the will of his enemies. 3. (Verse A.T.B.) The Lord comfort him, when he lieth sick upon his bed; make Thou all his bed in his sickness. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost; as it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

S. MATT. xxi.—9.—Blessed is He Who cometh in the Name of the Lord. Hosanna in the highest.

BEETHOVEN, FARMER, GOUNOD, HUMMEL, MOZART, SCHUBERT, &c.

PSALM xxxii.—1. (Chorus.) Blessed is he whose unrighteousness is forgiven and whose sin is covered. 2. Blessed is the man unto whom the Lord imputeth no sin, and in whose spirit there is no guile. 3. (Verse S.A.T.B.) For while I held my tongue my bones consumed away through my daily complaining. 4. For Thy hand is heavy upon me day and night, and my moisture is like the drought in summer. 5. I said, I will confess my sins unto the Lord, and so Thou forgavest the wickedness of my sin. 6. (Chorus.) Therefore shall every one that is godly make his prayer unto Thee, in a time when Thou mayest be found. 11. For whoso putteth his trust in the Lord, mercy embraceth him on every side.

ALCOCK.

PSALM cxii.—1. (Verse A.T.B.) Blessed is the man that feareth the Lord, he hath great delight in His commandments. 2. His seed shall be mighty upon earth; the generation of the faithful shall be blessed. 3. Riches and plenteousness shall be in his house; and his righteousness endureth for ever. 6. He shall never be moved; the righteous shall be had in everlasting remembrance. 7. He will not be afraid of any evil tidings, for his heart standeth fast, and believeth in the Lord. (Chorus.) He will not be afraid of any evil tidings: for his heart standeth fast, and believeth in the Lord.

BOYCE.

81.

PSALM cxii.—1. (Full.) Blessed is the man that feareth the Lord; he hath great delight in His commandments. His seed shall be mighty upon earth; the generation of the faithful shall be blessed.

Sir F. A. G. OUSELEY.

PSALM i.—1. (Chorus.) Blessed is the man that hath not walked in the counsel of the ungodly, nor stood in the way of sinners, and hath not sat in the seat of the scornful. 2. But his delight is in the law of the Lord, and in His law will he exercise himself day and night. 3. (Verse A.T.B.) And he shall be like a tree planted by the water-side, that will bring forth his fruit in due season. 4. His leaf also shall not wither; and look, whatsoever he doeth, it shall prosper. 5. (Chorus.) As for the ungodly, it is not so with them; but they are like the chaff which the wind scattereth away from the face of the earth.

Sir JOHN GOSS.

PSALM i.—1. (Verse S.A.) Blessed is the man that hath not walked in the counsel of the ungodly, nor stood in the way of sinners. 4. His leaf shall not wither. 3. And like a tree planted by the water-side, he shall prosper in his doings. 5. (Verse A.) As for the ungodly, it is not so with them; they are like the chaff scattered by the wind from the face of the earth. 6. Therefore the ungodly shall not be able to stand in the judgment, nor sinners in the congregation of the righteous. 7. (Chorus.) The Lord knoweth the way of the righteous, the way of the ungodly shall perish.

GREENE.

REV. vii.—12. (Double Chorus.) Blessing, glory, wisdom, and thanks, power, and might, be unto our God for evermore. Hallelujah, Amen. PSALM cxlviii.—1. (Verse S.A.T.B. and Chorale.) O praise the Lord of heaven: praise Him in the height. 12. His Name is excellent, His praise above heaven and earth.

Ye boundless realms of joy,
Exalt your Maker's fame:
His praise your song employ
United zeal be shown,
His wondrous fame to raise,
Whose glorious Name alone
Deserves our endless praise.

PSALM lxvi.—1. (Double Chorus.) O be joyful in God, all ye lands; make His praise to be glorious. Sing praises unto the honour of His Name. xcvi.—6. Glory and worship are before Him; power and honour are in His sanctuary.

(Chorale.) To Father, Son, and Holy Ghost,
The God Whom heaven's triumphant host
And suffering saints on earth adore,
Be glory as in ages past:
As now it is, and so shall last,
When time itself must be no more.
Hallelujah. Amen.

J. SEBASTIAN BACH.

PSALM lxxxi.—3. (Recit. B.) Blow up the trumpet in the time appointed, on our solemn feast-day. Take a psalm and bring hither the timbrel, the pleasant harp, with the psaltery, for this was a statute for Israel, and a law of the God of Jacob. (Verse T. and Chorus.)

Let us go to pray before the Lord, to seek the Lord of hosts. Let us come before His presence giving thanks, and make a joyful noise to Him with psalms. I will also go. I will praise Thee, O Lord, with my whole heart. I will give Thee thanks, O Lord, I will praise Thee among the people. (Chorus.) The earth is the Lord's and the fulness thereof; the world and they that dwell therein. Let us come before His presence, and make a joyful noise to Him. The earth is the Lord's, and the fulness thereof, the world, and they that dwell therein. (Recit. T.) Behold, I have brought the first-fruits of the land, which Thou, O Lord, hast given me. lxvii.—3. (Verse B. and Chorus.) Let the people praise Thee, O Lord, let all the people praise Thee, O Lord; let all the people praise Thee. Then shall the earth yield her increase, and God, even our own God shall bless us. God be merciful unto us, and bless us, and cause His face to shine upon us. lxviii.—19. (Chorus.) Blessed be the Lord, Who daily loadeth us with benefits; even the God of our salvation. Amen.

(Eli.) Sir M. COSTA.

PSALM lxxxvi.—1. (Verse T.) Bow down Thine ear, O Lord, and hear me; for I am poor, and in misery. cxl.—12. (Verse A.) Sure I am that the Lord will avenge the poor, and maintain the cause of the helpless. LAMENTATIONS iii.—33. For He doth not afflict willingly nor grieve the children of men. 21. This I recall to mind, therefore have I hope. 32. (Verse A.T.B.) For though He cause grief, yet will He have compassion according to the multitude of His mercy. PSALM xxxiv.—8. (Verse T.) O taste, and see, how gracious the Lord is; blessed is the man that trusteth in Him. WISDOM iii. (Verse S. or T.) They that put their trust in Him shall understand the truth, and such as be faithful in love shall abide in Him; for grace and mercy are to His saints, and He hath care for His elect. (Verse and Chorus.) Therefore with angels and archangels, and with all the company of heaven, we laud and magnify Thy glorious Name; evermore praising Thee, and saying, Holy, Holy, Holy, Lord God of hosts, heaven and earth are full of Thy glory: glory be to Thee, O Lord most high. Amen.

PSALM xxix.—1. (Verse A.B.) Bring unto the Lord, O ye mighty, bring young rams unto the Lord; ascribe unto the Lord worship and strength. 2. (Chorus.) Give the Lord the honour due unto His Name, worship the Lord with holy worship. 3. (Verse B.) It is the Lord that commandeth the waters: it is the glorious God that maketh the thunder. 4. (Verse A.) It is the Lord that ruleth the sea; the voice of the Lord is mighty in operation. The voice of the Lord is a glorious voice. 10. (Verse A.B. and Chorus.) The Lord shall give strength unto His people; the Lord shall give His people the blessing of peace. Amen.

W. HAYES.

(Verse B. and Chorus.)

Brother, thou art gone before us, and thy saintly soul is flown,
Where tears are wiped from every eye, and sorrow is unknown;
From the burthen of the flesh, and from care and fear released,
Where the wicked cease from troubling, and the weary are at rest.

The toilsome road thou'st travelled o'er, and borne the heavy load,
But Christ hath taught thy languid feet to reach His blest abode;
Thou'rt sleeping now, like Lazarus upon his Father's breast,
Where the wicked cease from troubling, and the weary are at rest.

PSALM cxxxvii.—1. (Chorus.) By the waters of Babylon we sat down and wept, when we remembered thee, O Sion. 2. As for our harps, we hanged them up upon the trees which are therein. 3. For they that led us away captive required of us a song, and melody in our heaviness; sing us one of the songs of Sion. 4. How shall we sing the Lord's song in a strange land? 5. (Verse S.A.T.B.) If I forget thee, O Jerusalem, let my right hand forget her cunning. 6. If I do not remember thee, let my tongue cleave to the roof of my mouth; yea, if I prefer not Jerusalem in my mirth. 7. (Chorus.) Remember the children of Edom, O Lord, in the day of Jerusalem; how they said, Down with it, down with it, even to the ground. 8. O daughter of Babylon, wasted with misery; yea, happy shall he be that rewardeth thee as thou hast served us. 9. Blessed shall he be that dasheth thy children against the stones.

1 COR. XV.—20. (Verse B.) Christ is risen from the dead, and become the first fruits of them that slept. 21. For since by man came death, by man came also the resurrection of the dead. (Verse A.A.T.B.B.) O be joyful. (Verse B.) He is risen, and hath overcome death. ROMANS vi.—9. Christ being raised, death hath no more dominion over Him. He hath opened the gates of everlasting life. PSALM lxvi.—1. (Verse A.A.T.B.B.) O be joyful in God, sing praises to the honour of His Name, make His praise to be glorious. 4. (Verse A.B.) O come hither, and behold the works of God; how wonderful He is in His doings towards the children of men. cl.—1. (Verse A.A.T.B.B. and Chorus.) O praise God; praise Him and magnify Him for ever. 2. (Verse A.) Praise Him in His noble acts; praise Him according to His excellent greatness. 3. Praise Him in the sound of the trumpet; praise Him upon the lute and harp. 6. (Chorus.) Let everything that hath breath praise the Lord.

PURCELL.

I. Cor. v.—7. (Chorus.) Christ, our Passover, is sacrificed for us; 8. Therefore let us keep the feast. (Verse S. and Chorus.) Not with the old leaven, nor with the leaven of malice and wickedness, but with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth.

Sir John Goss.

Hosea vi.—1. (Chorus.) Come, and let us return unto the Lord; for He hath torn, and He will heal us: He hath smitten, and He will bind us up. I. Samuel ii.—6. (Recit. B.) The Lord killeth and maketh alive: He bringeth down to the grave, and bringeth up. The Lord maketh poor, and maketh rich: He bringeth low, and lifteth up. (Chorus.) The pillars of the earth are the Lord's, and He hath set the world upon them. Job v.—17. (Recit. B. and Chorus.) Behold, happy is the man whom God correcteth: 18. For He maketh sore, and bindeth up: He woundeth, and His hands make whole. Hosea vi.—1. (Chorus.) Come, and let us return unto the Lord; for He hath torn, and He will heal us: He hath smitten, and He will bind us up.

(Verse S.) Come, Holy Ghost, our souls inspire,
And lighten with celestial fire;
Thou the anointing Spirit art,
Who dost Thy seven-fold gifts impart:
Thy blessèd unction from above
Is comfort, life, and fire of love.

(Verse S.A.T.B.) Enable with perpetual light
The dulness of our blinded sight:
Anoint and cheer our soilèd face
With the abundance of thy grace:
Keep far our foes, give peace at home;
Where Thou art Guide, no ill can come.

(Chorus.) Teach us to know the Father, Son,
And Thee, of Both, to be but One;
That, through the ages all along,
This may be our endless song:
Praise to Thy eternal merit,
Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

Attwood.

115.

(Verse A.T.B.B.) Come, Holy Ghost, our souls inspire,

Isaiah xxxiv.—1. (Verse B.) Come near, ye nations, to hear, and hearken, ye people. (Chorus.) Let the earth hear, and all that is therein, the world, and all things that come forth of it. xxx.—18. (Verse T.) And therefore will the Lord wait, that He may be gracious unto you, and therefore will He be exalted, that He may have mercy upon you, for the Lord is a God of judgment. (Verse S.A.T.B.—S.A.T.B.) Blessed are they that wait for Him, yea, blessed are they that wait on Him. Psalm cl.—6. (Chorus.) Let every thing that hath breath praise the Lord.

J. Smith.

117.

(Full.) Come unto Him, all ye who labour;
Your Lord will give you rest and peace,
Comfort for all your sorrows; ye weary,
He will give you rest for your souls.
O turn from the pleasures of sin,
And behold your Lord on His cross,
Who dies for the sins of the world.
He will receive you, He will refresh you,
He will give rest to your souls.

Behold, on His cross our Redeemer,
Nailed there by our transgressions,
Calls all men to Himself;
He pleads His blood,
He shows His streaming wounds,*
As He makes intercession, He cries,
"Come ye to Me, and I will save your soul!"

GOUNOD.

S. Luke xxiii.—28. (Full.) Daughters of Jerusalem, weep not for Me, but weep for yourselves, and for your children.

Sir George J. Elvey.

124.

S. Luke xxiii.—28. (Prologue.) Daughters of Jerusalem, weep ye not, weep not for Me, weep for yourselves, and for your children. And when they were come to the place which is called Calvary, there they crucified Jesus. I. S. Matt. xxvii.—39; S. Luke xxiii.—34. And they that passed by reviled Him, wagging their heads. Then said Jesus, Father, forgive them, for they know not what they do. II. S. Luke xxiii. —39, 42, 43. And one of the malefactors, which were hanged, said unto Jesus, Lord, remember me when Thou comest into Thy kingdom. And Jesus said unto him, Verily I say unto thee, this day shalt thou be with Me in paradise. III. S. John xix.—26, 27. When Jesus therefore saw His Mother, and the disciple standing by, whom He loved, He saith unto His Mother (Verse S.A.T.B.), Woman, behold thy Son! (Chorus.) Then saith He to the disciple, Behold thy mother! IV. S. Matt. xxviii.—45, 46; S. Mark xv.—33, 34. There was darkness over all the land, and at the ninth hour Jesus cried with a loud voice, saying (Verse S.A.T.B. and Chorus), Eloï, Eloï, lama sabachthani? which is, being interpreted, My God, My God, why hast Thou forsaken Me? V. S. John xix.—28. After this, Jesus knowing that all things were now accomplished, that the scripture might be fulfilled, saith (Verse S.A.T.B.), I thirst. VI. S. John xix.—29, 30. Now there was a vessel full of vinegar, and they filled a sponge with vinegar, and put it upon hyssop, and they put it to His mouth. When Jesus therefore had received the vinegar, He said (Verse S.A.T.B. and Chorus), It is finished. VII. S. Luke xxii.—28. (Double Chorus.) Father, into Thy hands I commend My spirit.

Gounod.

Psalm lix.—1. (Chorus.) Deliver me from mine enemies, O God; defend me from them that rise up against me. 9. (Verse S.S.B.) My strength will I ascribe unto Thee, for Thou art my God, the God of my refuge. Isaiah xxv.—1. (Chorus.) O Lord my God, I will exalt Thee, I will praise Thy Name.

Ebdon.

Psalm cvi.—45. (Full.) Deliver us, O Lord our God, and gather us from among the heathen, that we may give thanks unto Thy holy Name, and make our boast of Thy praise. 46. Blessed be the Lord God of Israel from everlasting, and world without end; and let all the people say, Amen.

Batten.

(Full.) Distracted with care and anguish,
When hearts, despairing, languish;
Madly they seek for comfort
Where it doth ne'er abide.

For us no rest remaineth,
If earth our love retaineth,
And heaven we cast aside.

Relief he only gaineth,
And peace at last attaineth
Whom God vouchsafes to guide.

HAYDN.

PROV. viii.—1, 4. (Verse B.) Doth not Wisdom cry? and Understanding put forth her voice? Unto you, O men, I call; and my voice is to the sons of man. 17. (Chorus.) I love them that love me; and those that seek me early shall find me. 32. Now, therefore, hearken unto me, O ye children, for blessed are they that keep my ways. 33. Hear instruction, and be wise, and refuse it not. 34. Blessed is the man that heareth me, watching daily at my gates, waiting at the posts of my doors. Amen.

HACKING.

PSALM CXXV.—4. (Full.) Do well, O Lord, unto those that are good and true of heart. 5. As for such as turn back unto their own wickedness, the Lord shall lead them forth with the evil-doers, but peace shall be upon Israel. Amen.

G. TOWNSHEND SMITH.

1 KINGS xviii.—30. (Verse B.) Draw near, all ye people, come to me! Lord God of Abraham, Isaac, and Israel! this day let it be known that Thou art God; and I am Thy servant. O show to all this people that I have done these things according to Thy word! O hear me, Lord, and answer me; and show this people that Thou art Lord God; and let their hearts again be turned. PSALM lv.—22; xvi.—8; cviii.—5; xxv.—3. (Verse S.A.T.B.) Cast thy burden upon the Lord, and He shall sustain thee. He never will suffer the righteous to fall: He is at thy right hand. Thy mercy, Lord, is great; and far above the heavens. Let none be made ashamed that wait upon Thee! civ.—4. (Verse B.) O Thou, who makest Thine angels spirits,

Thou, Whose ministers are flaming fires, let them now descend! 1 KINGS xviii.—38, 39. (Chorus.) The fire descends from heaven; the flames consume his offering! Before Him upon your faces fall! The Lord is God, O Israel hear! Our God is one Lord, and we will have no other gods before the Lord.

(Elijah.) MENDELSSOHN.

ISAIAH xl.—8. (Verse T.) Drop down, ye heavens, from above, and let the skies pour down righteousness: let the earth open, and let them bring forth salvation, and let righteousness spring up together. S. JOHN i.—14. (Verse S.S.A.T.B.) The Word was made flesh, and dwelt among us (and we beheld His glory, the glory as of the only begotten of the Father), full of grace and truth. PSALM lxxxv.—9. (Chorus.) His salvation is nigh them that fear Him; that glory may dwell in our land. 10. Mercy and truth are met together; righteousness and peace have kissed each other. 11. Truth shall flourish out of the earth; and righteousness hath looked down from heaven. Hallelujah. Amen.

BARNBY.

ISAIAH xl.—8. (Verse S.S.A.A.T.T.B.B.) Drop down, ye heavens, from above, and let the skies pour down righteousness: let the earth open, and let them bring forth salvation, and let righteousness spring forth together. S. LUKE i.—28. (Verse S.) Hail, thou that art highly favoured, the Lord is with thee: blessed art thou among women. 31. Behold, thou shalt conceive, and bring forth a Son, and shalt call His Name Jesus. 32. (Chorus T.B.) He shall be great, and shall be called the Son of the Highest, and of His kingdom there shall be no end. PSALM xlv.—3. (Chorus.) Thou art fairer than the children of men; full of grace are thy lips, because God hath blessed thee for ever. Amen.

STAINER.

1 KINGS xvii.—3. (Verse A.) Elijah! get thee hence; depart, and turn thee eastward, thither hide thee by Cherith's brook. There shalt thou drink its waters; and the Lord thy God hath commanded the ravens to feed thee there; so do according unto His word. PSALM xci.—11, 12. (Verse S.S.A.A.—T.T.B.B.) For He shall give His angels charge over thee, that they shall protect thee in all the ways thou goest; that their hands shall uphold and guide thee, lest thou dash thy foot against a stone. cxxviii.—1; cxii.—1, 4. (Chorus.) Blessed are the men who fear Him; they ever walk in the ways of peace. Through darkness riseth light to the upright. He is gracious, compassionate, He is righteous.

PSALM cxliii.—2. (Full.) Enter not into judgment with Thy servant, O Lord; for in Thy sight shall no man living be justified.

ATTWOOD. CLARKE-WHITFELD.

(Chorale S.A.T.B.B.) Eternal Ruler of the skies!
To Whom, inspired by hope, we pray,
Whose power true wisdom ne'er denies,
Whose justice all Thy acts display,
Whose righteous mercies never cease.

That which we humbly ask, bestow;
Our wanderings from the right forgive;
Teach us to feel for others' woe,
And dying, let us hope to live
Again, in realms of endless peace.

MENDELSSOHN.

Adapted from the 5th Organ Sonata.

136.

(Chorale.) Father, Son, and Spirit guide
All our wanderings by Thy word;
As Thou hast been, still abide
Our defence, our refuge, Lord.

Mighty God, we now commend
Soul and body unto Thee:
All the powers that Thou dost lend
By Thy hand directed be.

Never safe except with Thee,
Ever Thou our guardian be,
Till our final rest be come,
And Thine angels bear us home.

Rev. C. J. DICKINSON.

137.

JOEL ii.—21. (Chorus.) Fear not, O land; be glad and rejoice: for the Lord will do great things. 22. Be not afraid, ye beasts of the field; for the pastures of the wilderness do spring, for the tree beareth her fruit, the fig-tree and the vine do yield their strength. 23. Be glad then, ye children of Zion, and rejoice in the Lord your God. Be glad then, O land, and rejoice, for the Lord will do great things. 24. (Verse B. and Chorus.) The floors shall be full of wheat. 26. And ye shall eat in plenty, and be satisfied, and praise the Name of the Lord your God, that hath dealt so wondrously with you. 23. Be glad then, ye children, and rejoice in the Lord your God, for the Lord will do great things.

Sir JOHN GOSS.

(Full.) Fierce was the wild billow, dark was the night;
Oars labour'd heavily, foam glimmered white;
Trembled the mariners, peril was high;
Then said the God of God—"Peace, it is I."

Ridge of the mountain wave, lower thy crest!
Wail of Euroclydon be thou at rest!
Sorrow can never be, darkness must fly—
Where saith the Light of Light—"Peace, it is I."

Jesu! Deliverer! come Thou to me;
Soothe Thou my voyaging over life's sea;
Thou, when the storm of death roars, sweeping by,
Whisper, O Truth of Truth—"Peace, it is I."

Rev. G. W. TORRANCE.

139.

(Verse T.) For ever blessed be Thy holy Name Lord God of Israel!

(Chorus.) Theme sublime of endless praise;
Just and righteous are Thy ways;
And Thy mercies still endure,
Ever faithful, ever sure.

(Jephthah.) HANDEL.

140.

PHIL. ii.—8. (Full.) For our offences Jesus took upon Him humility; and unto death, even upon the cross, became He obedient. God, therefore, Him hath exalted, and on Him a Name hath bestowed, high above every mortal name. Hallelujah.

MENDELSSOHN.

PSALM xxviii.—21. (Full.) Forsake me not, O Lord my God, be not Thou far from me. 22. Haste Thee to help me, O Lord God of my salvation.

LONGHURST.

142.

MALACHI i.—11. (Full.) From the rising of the sun unto the going down of the same, My Name shall be great among the Gentiles; and in every place incense shall be offered up unto My Name: for My Name shall be great among the heathen. Thus saith the Lord.

Sir F. A. G. OUSELEY.

DEUT. xxxii.—1. (Chorus.) Give ear, O ye heavens, and I will speak: and hear, O earth, the words of my mouth. 2. (Verse S.A. T.B.) My doctrine shall drop as the rain, my speech shall distil as the dew, as the small rain upon the tender herb, and as showers upon the grass. 3. (Chorus.) Because I will publish the Name of the Lord: ascribe ye the greatness unto our God. Amen.

ARNES.

PSALM xvii.—1. (Verse S.S. or T.T.) Give ear unto me, Lord, I beseech Thee, for I have walked in Thy commandments. 3. Let me be judged with righteous judgment; O let my sentence come from Thy presence. 5. O hold Thou me up, guide me in the path of Thy commandments. I am Thy servant, teach me Thy statutes; hold up my goings in all Thy paths, so that my footsteps may not be moved. (Chorus.) Amen.

MARCELLO.

145.

PSALM lxxii.—1. (Verse A.T.) Give the king Thy judgments, O God; and Thy righteousness unto the king's son. 2. Then shall he judge the people according unto right; and defend the poor. 3. (Verse B.) The mountains also shall bring peace, and the little hills righteousness unto the people. 5. (Verse A.T.B.) They shall fear Thee, as long as the sun and moon endureth; from one generation to another. 7. (Verse B.) In his time shall the righteous flourish; yea, and abundance of peace, so long as the moon endureth. 8. His dominion shall be also from the one sea to the other; and from the flood unto the world's end. 11. (Chorus.) All kings shall fall down before him, all nations shall do him service. Amen.

BOYCE.

PSALM xxix.—2. (Verse T.B.) Give the Lord the honour due unto His Name; worship the Lord with holy worship. 3. (Verse B.) It is the Lord, that commandeth the waters; it is the glorious God, that commandeth the thunder. 4. (Verse T.) It is the Lord, that ruleth the sea; the voice of the Lord is mighty in operation; the voice of the Lord is a glorious voice. (Chorus.) The voice of the Lord is a glorious voice. 9. (Verse T.B.) The Lord sitteth above the water-flood; and the Lord remaineth a King for ever. 10. (Chorus.) The Lord shall give strength unto His people. (Verse T.B.) The Lord shall give His people the blessing of peace. (Chorus.) Hallelujah. Amen.

KENT.

PSALM xcvi.—8. (Chorus.) Give unto the Lord the glory due unto His Name; bring an offering, and come into His courts. PROV. iii.—9. (Verse B.) Honour the Lord with thy substance, and with the first fruits of all thine increase. 10. (Verse S.A.T.B. and Chorus.) So shall thy barns be filled with plenty, and thy presses shall burst out with new wine. PSALM xcvi.—8. Give unto the Lord the glory due unto His Name.

BRIDGE.

(Verse T.B.) Glorious and powerful God, we understand
Thy dwelling is on high,
Above the starry sky.
Thou dwell'st not in stone temples made with hand;
But in the flesh-hearts of the sons of men
To dwell, is Thy delight,
Near hand, though out of sight.

(Chorus.) Thou dwell'st not in stone temples, &c., &c.

(Verse T.B.) We give of Thine own hand Thy Acceptation,
His very life and blood,
To all actions good.
Whenever, here or hence, our supplication
From pure and with unfeigned hearts to Thee ascends,
Be present with Thy grace,
Shew us Thy loving face.

(Chorus.) From pure and with unfeigned hearts, &c., &c.

(Verse T.B. and Chorus.) O down on us full showers of mercy send;
Let Thy love's burning beams
Dry up all our sins' streams.
Arise, O Lord, and come into Thy rest;
Both now and evermore Thy Name be blest;
Founder and Foundation
Of endless habitation.

GIBBONS.

149.

(Full.) Glory to God on high, and on earth peace, good will towards men. We praise Thee, we bless Thee, we worship Thee, we glorify Thee, we give thanks to Thee for Thy great glory, O Lord God, Heavenly King, God the Father Almighty. Hallelujah. Amen.

JOSEPH ROBINSON.

HABBAKUK iii.—3. (Chorus.) God came from Teman, and the Holy One from Mount Paran. His glory covered the heavens, and the earth was full of His praise. 6. He stood, and measured the earth; He beheld, and drove asunder the nations; and the everlasting mountains were scattered, and the perpetual hills did bow: (Verse S.) His ways are everlasting. (Verse S. and Chorus.) Hallelujah. Amen.

STEGGALL.

151.

ACTS xvii.—24. (Verse B.) God dwelleth not in temples made with hands. 1 COR. iii.—16. For know ye not that ye are His temple, and that the Spirit of God dwelleth within you? 17. And whosoe'er God's temple defileth, God shall sure destroy him. For the temple of God is holy, which temple ye are. PSALM CIV.—3. (Verse B. and Chorus.) But our God abideth in heaven; His will directeth all the world.

We bow to only His decree,
Who made the skies, the earth, and sea.

(St. Paul.) MENDELSSOHN.

152.

I. THESS. v.—9. (Full.) God hath not appointed us to wrath, but to obtain salvation by our Lord Jesus Christ, 10, Who died for us, that whether we wake or sleep we should live together with Him.

S. JOHN iv.—24. (Verse S.A.T.B. or Full.) God is a Spirit; and they that worship Him must worship Him in spirit and in truth. 23. For the Father seeketh such to worship Him.

(The Woman of Samaria.) Sir W. S. BENNETT.

PSALM xlvii.—5. (Chorus.) God is gone up with a merry noise, and the Lord with the sound of the trumpet. 6. (Verse S.S.A.A.T.B.) O sing praises, sing praises unto our God; O sing praises, sing praises unto our King. 7. (Chorus.) For God is the King of all the earth; O sing ye praises with understanding. Amen.

CROFT.

PSALM xlvi.—1. (Chorus.) God is our hope and strength; a very present help in trouble. 2. (Verse S.S.A.T.B.) Therefore will we not fear, though the earth be moved, and though the hills be carried into the midst of the sea. 3. (Chorus.) Though the waters rage and swell, and though the mountains shake at the tempest of the same. 4. (Verse S.S.A.T.B.) The rivers of the flood thereof shall make glad the city of God. 5. God is in the midst of her, therefore shall she not be removed. 6. The heathen make much ado, the kingdoms of the earth are troubled; but God hath shewed His voice, and the earth shall melt away. 1. (Chorus.) God is our hope and strength; a very present help in trouble.

PSALM xlvi.—1. (Chorus.) God is our hope and strength; a very present help in trouble. 2. Therefore will we not fear, though the earth be moved, and though the hills be carried into the midst of the sea. 3. Though the waters rage and swell, and the mountains shake at the tempest of the same. 4. (Verse S.A.T.B.) The rivers of the flood thereof shall make glad the city of God, the holy place of the Most Highest. 5. God is in the midst of her, therefore shall she not be removed; God shall help her, and that right early. 6. (Chorus.) The heathen make much ado, and the kingdoms are moved; but God hath shewed His voice, and the earth shall melt away. 7. The Lord of hosts is with us; the God of Jacob is our refuge. 8. (Verse B.) O come hither, and see the works of the Lord: what destruction He hath brought upon the earth. 9. He maketh wars to cease in all the world; He breaketh the bow, and knappeth the spear in sunder, and burneth the chariots in the fire. 10. Be still, then, and know that I am God: I will be exalted among the heathen; I will be exalted in the earth. (Chorus.) Be still, then, and know that I am God. (Fugal Chorus.) 1. God is our hope and strength; a very present help in trouble. Hallelujah. 11. The Lord of hosts is with us; the God of Jacob is our refuge.

161.

S. JOHN iii.—16. (Chorus.) God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth on Him should not perish, but have everlasting life. ROMANS v.—6. For when we were yet without strength, in due time Christ died for the ungodly. 7. (Verse T.B.) For scarcely for a righteous man will one die, but peradventure for a good man some would even dare to die. 8. (Verse S.A.T.B.) But God commendeth His love towards us, in that while we were yet sinners Christ died for us. 1. (Chorus.) Therefore being justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ.

HAMILTON CLARKE.

PART I.

(Chorus.) God, Thou art great!
The heavens are declaring—the sun in his brightness,
The stars in their wandering—Thou art the mighty One!
The earth sounds Thy praises
In deep roaring billows, in bright beaming meadows,
In all living creatures: Thou art the Mighty One.

Worlds in boundless orbits rolling,
Great is He Who formed you first;
All ye host of heavenly bodies,
Praise your Maker, sound His glory.

(Verse S. and Chorus.) Thou earth, waft sweet incense o'er thy plains;
Be an altar pouring thanks.

Sound His praise, ye rocky mountains;
Breathe His glory, whispering breezes:
He will be, and is, and was.
God, Thou art great!
The seraph hail Thee, the worm and dust!
Thou art our Maker, Thou art the Loving One!
God, Thou art great!
Thy love is given to men
Who strive to obey their Maker,
And seek their Father.

* (Chorus.) God, Thou art great! so say the heavens;
The earth proclaims it.
So sing bright seraphim, and souls of all men.
God, Thou art great! Thou art the Mighty One!
The Loving One for evermore. Amen.

* Omit when Parts I. and II. are sung as one Anthem.

Part II.

(Recit. B.)

Be dumb, ye sinners; the world is God's, and He is loved.

(Verse A.T.)

Children, pray this love to cherish:
Ye whom God has made His like.
Ye gentle spirits, the world is all your own,—
The beams of morning, the rays of evening, the day, the night,
They both to you bring peace and bliss.
Mortals, rejoice! the curse is past;
Ye now are blessed, and heaven itself e'en now draws near.
Mortals, rejoice! Earth, be thou now a land with love o'erflowing,
So heaven remains ever with thee.

(Verse S.A.T.B.)

Walk ye, walk ye, hundred thousands,
On the face of earth now dwelling;
Walk ye on in love and truth.

Great is God, and vast His goodness,
But on loving spirits only
Will His shadow rest.

(Chorus.)

God, Thou art great! so say the heavens:
The earth proclaims it.
So sing bright seraphim, and souls of all men.
God, Thou art great! Thou art the Mighty One!
The Loving One for evermore. Amen.

Collect for the Fifth Sunday after Trinity.

(Verse S.A.T.B. and Chorus.) Grant, O Lord, we beseech Thee, that the course of this world may be so peaceably ordered by Thy governance, that Thy Church may joyfully serve Thee in all godly quietness; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

HOLDEN, from MOZART.

Collect for the Ninth Sunday after Trinity.

(Verse S.A.T.B. and Chorus.) Grant to us, Lord, we beseech Thee, the spirit to think and do always such things as be rightful; that we, who cannot do any thing that is good without Thee, may be by Thee enabled to live according to Thy will; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Sir JOHN STEVENSON.

(Verse and Chorus.) Grant us Thy peace, Almighty Lord!
The source of every blessing;
We cannot keep Thy saving word,
Unless Thy peace possessing.
Thy peace O give,
By which we live.

MENDELSSOHN.

166.

Collect for Ascension Day.

(Chorus.) Grant, we beseech Thee, Almighty God (Verse S.S.), that like as we do believe Thy only-begotten Son our Lord Jesus Christ to have ascended into the heavens; so we may also in heart and mind thither ascend, and with Him continually dwell (Chorus), Who liveth and reigneth with Thee and the Holy Ghost, one God, world without end. Amen.

J. SMITH.

167.

Collect for the Fourth Sunday in Lent.

(Full.) Grant, we beseech Thee, Almighty God, that we, who for our evil deeds do worthily deserve to be punished, by the comfort of Thy grace may be relieved; through our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. Amen.

EARL OF ABINGDON. HENRY SMART.

169.

REV. xv.—3. (Chorus.) Great and marvellous are Thy works, Lord God Almighty; just and true are Thy ways, Thou King of saints. iv.—11. Thou art worthy, O Lord, to receive glory, and honour, and power, for Thou hast created all things, and for Thy pleasure they are, and were created. (Verse A.T.B. and Chorus.) Hallelujah.

BOYCE.

170.

REV. xv.—3. (Full.) Great and marvellous are Thy works, Lord God Almighty; just and true are Thy ways, Thou King of saints. 4. Who shall not fear Thee, O Lord, and glorify Thy Name? for Thou only art holy: for all nations shall come and worship before Thee; for Thy judgments are made manifest.

E. G. MONK.

PSALM xlvii.—1. (Chorus.) Great is the Lord, and highly to be praised, in the city of our God, even upon His holy hill. 8. (Verse S.S.) We wait for Thy loving-kindness, O Lord, in the midst of Thy temple. 10. Let the daughter of Judah be glad, and rejoice because of Thy judgments, O Lord. 13. (Chorus.) For this God is our God for ever and ever. Hallelujah. Amen.

LONGHURST.

172.

PSALM cxlv.—3. (Verse S.S. and Chorus.) Great is the Lord, and marvellous, worthy to be praised; there is no end of His greatness. 4. (Chorus.) One generation shall praise Thy works unto another, and declare Thy power. Amen.

W. HAYES.

173.

(Chorus.) Hail, gladd'ning light! of His pure glory poured
Who is the Immortal Father heavenly blest.
Holiest of Holies, Jesus Christ our Lord!
Now are we come to the sun's hour of rest,
The lights of evening round us shine,
We hymn the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit divine.
Worthiest art Thou at all times to be sung
With undefiled tongue,
Son of our God! Giver of life alone;
Therefore in all the world Thy glories, Lord, we own.

T. A. WALMISLEY.

174.

REV. xix.—6. (Full.) Hallelujah! for the Lord God Omnipotent reigneth. xi.—15. The kingdom of this world is become the kingdom of our Lord, and of His Christ; and He shall reign for ever and ever. xix.—16. King of kings, and Lord of lords. Hallelujah!

(Messiah.) HANDEL.

S. JAMES i.—12. (Full.) Happy and blest are they who have endured; yea, blest and happy. For though the body dies, the soul shall live for ever.

(St. Paul.) MENDELSSOHN.

177.

PSALM xxxi.—10. (Verse B.) Have mercy, O Lord, for I am in trouble; mine eye is consumed for very heaviness. In Thee, O Lord, have I put my trust; let me never be put to confusion; make haste to deliver me. (Chorus.) Have mercy upon me, O Lord, for I am in trouble; O Lord, shew Thy servant the light of Thy countenance. But my hope hath been in Thee; I have said, Thou art my God.

MOZART.

PSALM li.—1. (Chorus.) Have mercy upon me, O God, after Thy great goodness; according to the multitude of Thy mercies do away mine offences. 2. (Verse and Chorus.) Wash me throughly from my wickedness, and cleanse me from my sin. 3. For I acknowledge my faults, and my sin is ever before me. 12. O give me the comfort of Thy help again, and establish me with Thy free Spirit. 13. (Verse T.) Then shall I teach Thy ways unto the wicked, and sinners shall be converted unto Thee. 14. (Chorus.) O God, Thou that art the God of my health, my tongue shall sing of Thy righteousness. Hallelujah. Amen. 8. Thou shalt make me to hear of joy and gladness, that the bones which Thou hast broken may rejoice. Amen.

Sir JOHN GOSS.

PSALM li.—1. (Verse A.) Have mercy upon me, O God, after Thy great goodness; according to the multitude of Thy mercies do away mine offences. 12. O give me the comfort of Thy help again, and stablish me with Thy free Spirit. 11. Cast me not away from Thy presence, and take not Thy holy Spirit from me. (Chorus.) Cast me not away from Thy presence, and take not Thy holy Spirit from me. 15. (Verse A.) Thou shalt open my lips, O Lord; and my mouth shall shew Thy praise. 13. Then shall I teach Thy ways unto the wicked, and sinners shall be converted unto Thee. 19. Then shalt Thou be pleased with the sacrifice of righteousness, with burnt offerings and oblations; and my tongue shall sing of Thy righteousness. 17. (Chorus.) The sacrifice of God is a troubled spirit; a broken and contrite heart, O God, Thou wilt not despise.

PSALM lv.—1-8.

(Verse S.) Hear my prayer; O God, incline Thine ear
Thyself from my petition do not hide.
Take heed to me; hear how in prayer I mourn to Thee.
Without Thee all is dark; I have no guide.

(Verse and Chorus.) The enemy shouteth, the godless come fast;
Iniquity, hatred, upon me they cast!
The wicked oppress me, and where shall I fly?
Perplexed and bewildered, O God, hear my cry.

(Verse.) My heart is sorely pained within my breast;
My soul with deathly terror is oppressed:
Trembling and fearfulness upon me fall,
With horror overwhelmed, Lord, hear me call.

(Chorus.) Lord, hear me call.

(Verse and Chorus.) Oh! for the wings of a dove,
Far away would I rove:
In the wilderness build me a nest,
And remain there for ever at rest.

ISAIAH i.—2, 4, 16-18. (Verse A.T.B.) Hear, O heavens, and give ear, O earth, for the Lord hath spoken; I have nourished and brought up children, and they have rebelled against Me. Ah sinful nation, a seed of evil-doers, children that are corrupters: they have forsaken the Lord, they have provoked the Holy One of Israel unto anger. (Chorus.) They have provoked the Holy One of Israel unto anger, ah sinful nation. (Verse A.T.B.) Wash ye, make you clean; put away the evil of your doings from before Mine eyes; cease to do evil; learn to do well; seek judgment, relieve the oppressed, judge the fatherless, plead for the widow. Come now, let us reason together, saith the Lord; though your sins be as scarlet, they shall be as white as snow; though they be red like crimson, they shall be as wool. (Chorus.) Though your sins be as scarlet, they shall be as white as snow; though they be red like crimson, they shall be as wool.

P. HUMFREY.

(Recit. B.) Hear, O Israel; go ye forth this day to fight against your enemies. Let not your hearts faint; fear not, do not tremble, neither be ye terrified because of them; for the Lord your God is He that goeth with you to fight for you against your foes, and save you. PSALM lxxxiii.—1. (Chorus.) Hold not Thy peace, and be not still, O God. 2. For, lo! Thine enemies make a tumult, and they that hate Thee have lifted up the head. 3. They have taken crafty counsel against Thy people, and they that hate Thee have lifted up the head; they have taken counsel against Thy people. 13. O God, make them like a wheel; as the stubble before the wind, like a rolling thing before the whirlwind. 14. As the fire burneth a wood, and as the flame setteth the mountains on fire. 15. So persecute them with Thy tempest, and make them afraid with Thy storm.

God and King of Jacob's nation,
Oft our fathers sang Thy praise;
They ascribèd their salvation
To Thy deeds in ancient days.
All their foes were backward driven,
Not by their own arm and sword;
All their victories were given,
Won for them, by Thee, O Lord.
Fight for us, great God of battles;
Thine and Israel's foe shall fall.

PSALM xvii.—1. (Verse B.) Hear, O Lord, and consider my complaint; give ear unto my prayer, that goeth not out of feigned lips. 5. O hold up my goings in Thy paths, and hide me under the shadow of Thy wings. 9. Hide me from the ungodly that trouble me, to take away my soul. 16. As for me, I will behold Thy presence in righteousness, and when I awake up after Thy likeness, I shall be satisfied with it. 9. (Chorus.) Mine enemies compass me round about to take away my soul. 13. Up, Lord, disappoint him, and cast him down.

ISAIAH xlviii.—1, 18; liii.—1; xlix.—7; xli.—10; li.—12, 13. (Verse S.) Hear ye, Israel; hear what the Lord speaketh: Oh, hadst thou heeded My commandments! Who hath believed our report; to whom is the arm of the Lord revealed? Thus saith the Lord, the Redeemer of Israel, and His Holy One, to him oppressed by tyrants: thus saith the Lord; I am He that comforteth; be not afraid, for I am thy God, I will strengthen thee. Say, who art thou, that thou art afraid of a man that shall die; and forgettest the Lord thy Maker, Who hath stretched forth the heavens, and laid the earth's foundations? Be not afraid, for I, thy God, will strengthen thee.

ISAIAH xli.—10. (Chorus.) Be not afraid, saith God the Lord. Be not afraid! thy help is near. God, the Lord thy God, saith unto thee, Be not afraid! PSALM xci.—7. Though thousands languish and fall beside thee, and tens of thousands around thee perish, yet still it shall not come nigh thee.

(Chorus.)

Heaven and the earth display His grandeur is unbounded;
They declare He is God; they resound His endless fame:
He was Lord over all, ere the universe was founded;
O praise ye Him in song, His wondrous love proclaim!

(Verse 2nd S.)

No hostile force injustice raises
Can silence His elect, who bow and sing His praises,
For everlasting is His Name.
From day to day His power and glory are resounded;

(Verse 1st S. and Chorus.)

Heaven and the earth display His grandeur is unbounded;
O praise Him in song, His wondrous love proclaim!

(Verse 2nd S.)

Each fruit He forms, and stores with honied treasures;
He gives the lovely flowers their varied hues;

(Verse 1st S.)

Each night and day with constant care He measures,—
Tempers the parched earth,—cools it with evening dews;

(Verse S.S.)

And earth, redundant crowned, sustains each living creature.

(Verse A.)

He ordained the sun to animate all nature;
Light is the gift of His creating hands;
But past expressing,
Man's great blessing,
We now inherit in His pure and just commands.

(Chorus.)

O Sinai! thou theme of never-ending story;—
Theme of that day, when God in awful splendour came;
When, on thy summit clad in flame,
He veiled His radiant form
In the clouds of the storm,
Which dazzled mortal eyes with the brightness of His glory.
O say, why then did vivid lightnings flash around,
And smoke in torrents roll? Why did the air resound
With His trumpets and His thunder?
Why did the rocks and mountains shake at His descent?
Say, why was earth thus rent
From her foundations,—rent asunder?

(Verse A.)

He came to reveal to the children of our race,
Precepts of holiness, for glory that increaseth;

(Verse 1st S.)

He came unto the people chosen by His grace,
Commanding them to love Him with love that never ceaseth.

(Chorus.)

Holy, holy, ever-blessed law!
O sovereign justice, goodness past expressing!
Grateful to God, in return for this blessing,
Let us render Him love with our faith and our awe!

(Verse 1st S.)

He freed our sires from Egypt's cruel sway;
In deserts led and fed them night and day:
Our just and sacred laws, a God of kindness prove Him;
And, for our good, they command us to love Him.

(Chorus.)

Holy, holy, ever-blessed law!

(Verse 1st S.)

He fought for them,—He made the deep divide;
And from arid rocks, refreshing streamlets glide:
Our just and sacred laws, a God of kindness prove Him;
And, for our good, they command us to love Him.

(Chorus.)

Holy, holy, ever-blessed law!
O sovereign justice, goodness past expressing!
Grateful to God, in return for this blessing,
Let us render Him love with our faith and our awe!

(Verse S.A.A.)

Ye, who through servile fear, unwillingly are moved,—
A God so good to you, should fill your hearts with zeal.
And is it then so hard to own He should be loved?—
To feel as grateful hearts should feel?
The bondman trembles when his tyrant frowneth:
A father's love, His loving children crowneth.
If God, in love to you, His kindness thus imparts;
Love Him with all your hearts.

(Chorus.)

Holy, holy, ever-blessed law!
O sovereign justice, goodness past expressing!
Grateful to God, in return for this blessing,
Let us render Him love with our faith and our awe.

Heaven and the earth display His grandeur is unbounded;
They declare He is God; they resound his endless fame!

PSALM cxxxvii.—1. (Full.)

Here by Babylon's wave,
  Though heathen hands have bound us,
Though afar from our land,
  The pains of death surround us,
Sion! thy memory still
  In our hearts we are keeping,
And still we turn to thee
  Our eyes all sad with weeping.
Through our harps that we hung on the trees,
  Goes the low wind wearily moaning,
Mingles the sad note of the breeze,
  With voice as sad of sigh and groaning.

When mad with wine our foe rejoices,
  When unto their altars they throng,
  Loud for mirth then they call, "A song!
A song of Sion sing, lift up your voices."
O Lord, though the victor command
  Our captivity sad and lowly,
  How shall we raise Thy song so holy,
That we sung in our father's land?
Jerusalem, if we forget thee,
  Let our hands remember not their power,
  And our tongues be silent for that hour,
Jerusalem, if we forget thee.

Woe unto thee! Babylon, mighty city,
  For the day of thy fall is nigh!
For thee no hope, for thee no pity,
  Though loud thy wail riseth on high!
Then shalt thou desolate, forsaken,
  Be torn from thy fanes and thy thrones;
In that day shall thy babes be taken,
  And dashed against the stones!
Then unto thee, O Babylon the mighty,
  Be woe! be woe! be woe!*

PSALM xci.—(Full.) 1. He that under the shield of the Highest dwelleth, alway under the shadow of the Almighty abideth. 2. I will say to the Lord, my protection, my strong defence; my God, in Thee will I trust. 3. He shall deliver thee from the snare of the fowler, and from the noisome pestilence. 4. He shall cover thee with His feathers, and beneath His wings thou shalt hide in safety: like a buckler shall be His faithfulness. 5. Thou shalt not be affrighted for the terror of the night; for the arrow that in daytime flieth; 6. For the pestilence that in darkness walketh; for destruction that at noonday wasteth. 7. A thousand shall fall beside thee, and ten thousand; but it shall not come nigh thee. 8. With thine eyes shalt thou behold it, the reward of the wicked. 9. Lord, my God, Thou art my refuge; the most high is Thy habitation. 10. There shall no evil befall thee, neither shall any plague come nigh thy dwelling. 11. For the Lord shall give His angels charge over thee, and in all thy ways they shall keep thee. 12. In their hands they shall bear thee up, lest thou dash thy foot against a stone. 13. Thou shalt tread on the lion and the adder, and trample on the young lion and on the dragon. 14. He hath set his love on me, and therefore will I deliver him. He hath known My Name, and therefore will I exalt him. 15. He shall call on Me and I will answer him: I will be with him in trouble, I will deliver him, and to honour raise him. 16. Him will I satisfy with length of good days, and shew him salvation that cometh of Me.

How long shall I seek counsel in my soul, and be so vexed in my heart? how long shall mine enemies triumph over me? 3. Consider, and hear me, O Lord my God; lighten mine eyes, that I sleep not in death. 4. Lest mine enemy say, I have prevailed against him; for if I be cast down, they that trouble me will rejoice at it. 5. (Verse S.S.) But my trust is in Thy mercy, and my heart is joyful in Thy salvation. 6. (Chorus.) I will sing of the Lord, because He hath dealt so lovingly with me; yea, I will praise the Name of the Lord most Highest.

PART I.

PSALM lxxxiv.—1.

(Chorus.) How lovely are Thy dwellings fair,
O Lord of hosts, how dear
The pleasant tabernacles are,
Where Thou dost dwell so near!

(Verse S.) My soul doth long and almost die,
Thy courts, O Lord, to see:
My heart and flesh aloud do cry,
O living God, for Thee.

There even the sparrow freed from wrong,
Hath found a house of rest;
The swallow there to lay her young,
Hath built her brooding nest.

Even by Thy altars, Lord of hosts,
They find their safe abode;
And home they fly from round the coasts,
Toward Thee, my King, my God.

(Chorus.) Happy who in Thy house reside,
Where Thee they ever praise;
Happy whose strength in Thee doth bide,
And in their hearts Thy ways.

They pass through Baca's thirsty vale,
That dry and barren ground,
As through a fruitful watery dale
Where springs and showers abound.

They journey on from strength to strength,
With joy and gladsome cheer,
Till all before our God at length
In Zion do appear.

PART II.

(Verse S.A.T.B.) Lord God of hosts, hear now our prayer,
O Jacob's God, give ear;
Thou God, our shield, look on the face
Of Thy anointed dear.

For one day in Thy courts to be
Is better, and more blest,
Than in the joys of vanity
A thousand days at best.

I in the temple of my God
Had rather keep a door,
Than dwell in tents and rich abode
With sin for evermore.

For God the Lord, both sun and shield,
Gives peace and glory bright;
No good from them shall be withheld
Whose ways are just and right.

(Chorus.) Lord God of hosts, that reign'st on high,
That man is truly blest
Who only on Thee doth rely,
And in Thee only rest.

SPOHR.

225.

PSALM lxxiv.—1. (Verse T.) How lovely are Thy habitations, gracious Lord of hosts! 2. My soul yearneth, yea, it fainteth for Thy hallowed courts, O Lord, where heart and flesh exult in chanting praises of the living God. 3. (Verse S.A.) Yea, the sparrow finds a dwelling; to her nest the swallow turns, where she rears her tender young; also have I found Thine altars, Lord of hosts, my King and God. 4. (Verse B.) Blest are those who dwell with Thee; ever will they praise Thee. (Chorus.) How happy are they who are strong in Thee, for with their hearts Thy paths they keep. How happy are they who dwell with Thee, O Lord God of hosts. 8. O hear my prayer; give ear, mighty Lord, O Lord God of Jacob. 9. Behold our shield, O God, and regard the face of Thy Messiah. 10. For one day in Thy courts is better than a thousand. 11. I would rather humbly stand at the doorway of God's house than live in tents where evil dwelleth. 12. For a sun and shield is God. He will grace and glory grant; and from the just will He no good withhold. 13. Holy Lord, how blest are those who trust in Thee.

CHARLES SALAMAN.

226.

PSALM lxxxiv.—1. (Full.) How lovely is Thy dwelling-place, O Lord of hosts! 2. For my soul, it longeth, yea fainteth, for the courts of the Lord; my soul and body crieth out for the living God. 4. Blest are they that dwell within Thy house; they praise Thy Name evermore.

(Requiem.) BRAHMS.

227.

At the Burial of the Dead.

(To be sung going before the Body into the Church.)

S. JOHN xi.—25. (Full.) I am the Resurrection and the Life, saith the Lord: he that believeth in Me, though he were dead, yet shall he live. 26. And whosoever liveth and believeth in Me shall never die. JOB xix.—25. I know that my Redeemer liveth, and that He shall stand at the latter day upon the earth. 26. And though after my skin worms destroy this body, yet in my flesh shall I see God. 27. Whom I shall see for myself, and mine eyes shall behold, and not another. 1 TIM. vi.—7. We brought nothing into this world, and it is certain we can carry nothing out. JOB i.—21. The Lord gave, and the Lord hath taken away; blessed be the name of the Lord.

(To be sung at the Grave.)

Man that is born of a woman hath but a short time to live, and is full of misery. He cometh up, and is cut down, like a flower; he fleeth as it were a shadow, and never continueth in one stay. In the midst of life we are in death; of whom may we seek for succour, but of Thee, O Lord, Who for our sins art justly displeased? Yet, O Lord God most holy, O Lord most mighty, O holy and most merciful Saviour, deliver us not into the bitter pains of eternal death. Thou knowest, Lord, the secrets of our hearts; shut not Thy merciful ears to our prayer; but spare us, Lord most holy, O God most mighty, O holy and merciful Saviour, Thou most worthy Judge eternal, suffer us not, at our last hour, for any pains of death, to fall from Thee. Amen.

(To be sung after the Earth is cast upon the Body.)

I heard a voice from heaven, saying unto me, Write, from henceforth blessed are the dead which die in the Lord: even so saith the Spirit; for they rest from their labours. Amen.

CROFT, MORLEY, &c.

S. JOHN xi.—25. (Verse S.A.T.B.) I am the Resurrection and the Life, saith the Lord: he that believeth in Me, though he were dead, yet shall he live. 26. And whosoever liveth and believeth in Me shall never die. PSALM xxxix.—1. (Verse T.) I said, I will take heed to my ways, that I offend not in my tongue. 2. I will keep my mouth as it were with a bridle, while the ungodly is in my sight. 3. I held my tongue, and spake nothing; I kept silence, yea, even from good words; but it was pain and grief to me. 4. My heart was hot within me, and while I was thus musing the fire kindled; and at the last I spake with my tongue. 5. (Verse S.A.T.B.) Lord, let me know mine end, and the number of my days, that I may be certified how long I have to live. 14. I am a stranger with Thee, and a sojourner, as all my fathers were. 15. (Verse and Chorus.) O spare me yet a little, that I may recover my strength before I go hence, and be no more seen.

PSALM cxvi.—1. (Verse A.T.B.) I am well pleased that the Lord hath heard the voice of my prayer. 2. That He hath inclined His ear unto me; therefore will I call upon Him as long as I live. 3. The snares of death compassed me round about, and the pains of hell gat hold upon me. 4. I have found trouble and heaviness, and I did call upon the Name of the Lord: O Lord, I beseech Thee, deliver my soul. 5. Gracious is the Lord, and righteous; yea, our God is merciful. 6. The Lord preserveth the simple: when I was in misery He delivered me. 7. Turn again then unto Thy rest, O my soul; for the Lord hath rewarded thee. 8. For He hath delivered my soul from death, mine eyes from tears, and my feet from falling. 9. I shall walk before the Lord in the land of the living. 16. I will pay my vows unto the Lord, in the sight of His people; in the courts of the Lord's house, even in the midst of Thee, O Jerusalem. (Chorus.) Hallelujah.

ALDRICH, from CARISSIMI.

PSALM cxvi.—1. (Verse A.B.) I am well pleased that the Lord hath heard the voice of my prayer. 2. That He hath inclined His ear unto me; therefore will I call upon Him as long as I live. 3. (Verse B.) The snares of death compassed me round about, and the pains of hell gat hold upon me. 4. I shall find trouble and heaviness, and I will call upon the Name of the Lord: O Lord, I beseech Thee, deliver my soul. 5. (Verse A.) Gracious is the Lord, and righteous; yea, our God is merciful. 7. Turn again then unto Thy rest, O my soul; for the Lord hath rewarded thee. 8. And why? Thou hast delivered my soul from death, mine eyes from tears, and my feet from falling. 9. (Verse A.B.) I will walk before the Lord in the land of the living. 12. I will receive the cup of salvation, and call upon the Name of the Lord. (Chorus.) I will receive the cup of salvation, and call upon the Name of the Lord. cxviii.—14. (Verse A.B. and Chorus.) The Lord is my strength and my song, and He is become my salvation.

Sir JOHN STEVENSON.

PSALM cxvi.—1. (Chorus.) I am well pleased that the Lord hath heard the voice of my prayer. 2. That He hath inclined His ear unto me; therefore will I call upon Him as long as I live. xc.—4. (Verse B.) For a thousand years in Thy sight are but as yesterday. 7. For we consume away in Thy displeasure, and are afraid at Thy wrathful indignation. 9. For when Thou art angry all our days are gone; we bring our years to an end, as it were a tale that is told. cxvi.—3. The snares of death compassed me round about, and the pains of hell gat hold upon me. 4. I shall find trouble and heaviness, and I will call upon the Name of the Lord: O Lord, I beseech Thee, deliver my soul. 5. (Verse T.) Gracious is the Lord and righteous; yea, our God is merciful. 7. Turn again then unto thy rest, O my soul; for the Lord hath rewarded thee. 8. And why? Thou hast delivered my soul from death, mine eyes from tears, and my feet from falling. cxviii.—14. (Chorus.) The Lord is my strength and my song, and He has become my salvation.

Sir JOHN STEVENSON and JOSEPH ROBINSON.

REV. vii.—9. (Verse A.T.B.B. and Chorus.) I beheld, and lo, a great multitude, which no man could number, of all nations, and kindreds, and people, who stood before the throne, clothed with white robes, and palms were in their hands. 10. (Verse A.T.B.B.) And they cried with a loud voice, saying, Hallelujah, Salvation to our God which sitteth on the throne, and unto the Lamb. 13. (Verse A.) And I heard a voice, saying, What are these which are arrayed in white robes? and whence came they? 14. (Verse T.) These are they which came out of great tribulation, and have washed their robes, and made them white in the blood of the Lamb. 15. (Verse 1st B.) Therefore are they before the throne of God, and serve Him day and night in His temple. 11. (Verse 2nd B. and A.T.B.B.) And all the angels who stood round the throne, and the elders, with the four beasts, fell down before the throne, and worshipped God, 12. Saying, Hallelujah. (Verse A.T.B.B. and Chorus.) Blessing, and glory, and wisdom, and thanksgiving, and honour, and power, and might, be unto our God for ever and ever. Amen. Hallelujah. (Chorus.) Hallelujah.

REV. vii.—9. (Verse T.) I beheld, and lo, a great multitude, which no man could number, clothed with white robes, and palms were in their hands. 10. And they cried with a loud voice, saying, Salvation to our God that sitteth upon the throne, and unto the Lamb. (Double Chorus.) Hallelujah. (Verse B. and Chorus.) Salvation to our God that sitteth upon the throne, and unto the Lamb. Hallelujah. 13. (Verse T.) I heard a voice saying unto me, What are these which are arrayed in white robes? and whence came they? 14. (Verse B.) These are they which came out of great tribulation, and have washed their robes, and made them white in the blood of the Lamb. 11. (Verse S.) And all the angels stood round the throne, and the elders, and four beasts, fell down before the throne, and worshipped God, saying, 12. (Chorus.) Blessing, and glory, and wisdom, and thanksgiving, and honour, and power, be unto our God for ever and ever.

Sir GEORGE J. ELVEY.

(Full.) I call and cry to Thee, O Lord,
Give ear unto my plaint;
Bow down Thine eyes, and mark my heavy plight,
And how my soul doth faint:
For I have many ways offended Thee.
Forget my wickedness, O Lord, I beseech Thee.

TALLIS.

JONAH ii.—2. (Verse T.) I cried out of mine affliction, I cried unto the Lord, and He heard me; out of the belly of hell I cried, and Thou heardest my voice. 3. For Thou hadst cast me into the deep, in the midst of the seas; the floods compassed me about, all Thy waves and billows compassed me, Thy waves and billows passed over me. 4. Then I said, I am cast out of Thy sight, yet will I look again toward Thy holy temple. 6. I went down to the bottom of the mountains; the earth with her bars was about me for ever: yet hast Thou brought up my life from corruption, O Lord my God. 7. When my soul fainted within me I remembered the Lord, and my prayer came in unto Thee, into Thy holy temple. 9. (Chorus.) I will sacrifice unto the Lord with the voice of thanksgiving; I will pay Him that which I have vowed. Salvation is of the Lord.

PSALM cxlii.—1. (Verse A.A.) I cried unto the Lord with my voice: yea, even unto the Lord did I make my supplication. 2. I poured out my complaints before Him, and shewed Him of my trouble. lxxvii.—3. (Verse 1st A.) When I am in heaviness, I will think upon

God; when my heart is vexed I will complain. 6. (Verse 2nd A.) I call to remembrance my song, and in the night I commune with mine own heart, and search out my spirits. 7. Will the Lord absent Himself for ever, and will He be no more intreated? 11. (Verse A.A.) I will remember the works of the Lord; and call to mind Thy wonders of old time. 12. I will think also of all Thy works, and my talking shall be of Thy doings. 13. (Chorus.) Thy way, O God, is holy; who is so great a God as our God?

BOYCE.

PSALM cxlii.—1. (Verse or Chorus.) I cried unto the Lord with my voice: yea, even unto the Lord did I make my supplication. 2. (Verse S.A.) I poured out my complaints before Him, and shewed Him of my trouble. 3. (Verse B.) When my spirit was in heaviness Thou knewest my path; in the way wherein I walked, privily have they laid a snare for me. 4. (Verse A.T.B.) I looked also upon my right hand, and saw there was no man that would know me. 5. I had no place to flee unto, and no man cared for my soul. 6. (Verse S.A.T.B. and Chorus.) I cried unto Thee, O Lord, and said, Thou art my hope, and my portion in the land of the living.

CROFT.

PSALM iii.—4. (Verse S.A.T.B. and Chorus.) I did call upon the Lord with my voice, and He heard me out of His holy hill. 5. I laid me down and slept, and rose up again, for the Lord sustained me.

ROMANS viii.—31. (Verse S.) If God be for us, who can be against us? 33. Who shall lay any thing to the charge of God's elect? It is God that justifieth. 34. Who is he that condemneth? It is Christ that died, yea, rather, that is risen again, Who is at the right hand of God, Who makes intercession for us. REV. v.—12. (Chorus.) Worthy is the Lamb that was slain, 9. And hath redeemed us to God by His blood, 12. To receive power, and riches, and wisdom, and strength, and honour, and glory, and blessing. 13. Blessing and honour, glory and power, be unto Him that sitteth upon the throne, and unto the Lamb for ever and ever. (Chorus.) Amen.

PSALM cxxiv.—1. (Full.) If the Lord Himself had not been on our side, now may Israel say, If the Lord Himself had not been on our side, when men rose up against us; 2. They had swallowed us up quick when they were so wrathfully displeased at us. 3. Yea, the waters had drowned us, and the stream had gone over our soul. 4. The deep waters of the proud had gone even over our soul. 5. But praised be the Lord, Who hath not given us over for a prey unto their teeth. 6. Our soul is escaped even as a bird out of the snare of the fowler; the snare is broken, and we are delivered. 7. Our help standeth in the Name of the Lord, Who hath made heaven and earth.

1 THESS. iv.—14. (Verse A.B. and Chorus.) If we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so them also which sleep in Jesus will God bring with Him. 15. (Verse A.B.) For this we say unto you by the word of the Lord, that we which are alive and remain unto the coming of the Lord, shall not prevent them which are asleep. 16. For the Lord Himself shall descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of the archangel, and with the trump of God: and the dead in Christ shall rise first. 17. (Verse A.B. and Chorus.) Then we which are alive and remain shall be caught up together with them in the clouds, to meet the Lord in the air: and so shall we ever be with the Lord. 18. Wherefore comfort one another with these words.

1 KINGS viii.—13. (Verse B.) I have surely built Thee an house to dwell in, a settled place for Thee to abide in for ever. 27. (Verse T.) But will God indeed dwell on the earth? (Verse A.T.B.) Behold, the heaven and heaven of heavens cannot contain Thee; how much less the house that I have builded? 28. (Verse A.) Yet have Thou respect unto the prayer of Thy servant, O Lord my God. 29. That Thine eyes may be open toward this house night and day, even toward the place of which Thou hast said, (Verse A.T.B. and Chorus.) My Name shall be there. 30. (Verse A.T.B.) And hearken Thou to the supplication of Thy servant, and of Thy people Israel, when they shall pray toward this place: and hear Thou in heaven Thy dwelling-place: and when Thou hearest, forgive. 37. (Verse T.) If there be in the land famine, if there be pestilence, whatsoever plague, whatsoever sickness there be; 38. What prayer and supplication soever be made by any man, or by all Thy people Israel, which shall know every man the plague of his own heart, and spread forth his hands toward this house: 39. (Verse A.T.B.) Then hear Thou in heaven Thy dwelling-place, hear and forgive. ix.—3. (Verse B.) 253.

REV. iv.—1. (Verse A.) I looked, and, behold, a door was opened in heaven. (Verse A.T.T.B.) And the first voice which I heard was as it were of a trumpet talking with me; which said, Come up hither, and I will shew thee things which must be hereafter. 2. (Verse T.) And immediately I was in the spirit; and, behold, a throne was set in heaven. 4. And round about the throne were four and twenty elders, clothed in white raiment, and they had on their heads crowns of gold. 5. (Verse A.T.T.B. and Chorus.) And out of the throne proceeded lightnings and thunderings; and voices were heard saying, 8. (Verse A.T.T.B.), Holy, Holy, Holy, Lord God Almighty, Who was, and is, and is to come. 10. (Verse B.) And the four and twenty elders which were round the throne, fell down before Him, saying, 11. (Verse S.A.T.B. and Chorus.) Thou art worthy, O Lord, of honour, and power, and glory, and thanks, for ever and for ever. O Lord, Thou art worthy of praise. O Lord, we give Thee thanks for ever and ever.

Sir JOHN STEVENSON.

REV. xiv.—1. (Verse A.T.B.B. and Chorus.) I looked, and, lo, a Lamb stood on the mount of Sion, and with Him an hundred forty and four thousand, having His Father's Name written in their foreheads. 2. (Verse A. and Chorus.) And I heard a voice from heaven as the voice of many waters, and as the voice of a great thundering. (Verse T. and A.T.B.B.) And I heard the voice of harpers, harping with their harps: 3. And they sung a new song before the throne, and before the four beasts and the elders. (Verse 2nd B.) And no man could learn that song but the hundred and forty and four thousand, which were redeemed from the earth. 4. (Verse 1st B.) These are they which follow the Lamb whithersoever He goeth. (Verse A.T.B.B. and Chorus.) Hallelujah. These were redeemed from among men, being the first-fruits unto God, and to the Lamb. And in their mouth was no guile, for they are without fault before the throne of God. Hallelujah.

Sir JOHN STEVENSON.

HIMMEL.

257.

(Verse S.A.T.B. and Chorus.) In humble faith and holy love,
The song of saints and martyrs sing.
That incense which to God above,
Blest angels and archangels bring.
(Chorus.) Three mystic rays in glory shine
From the tremendous Godhead's throne;
These in one source doth faith combine,
In Three we praise our God alone.
(Verse S.) In this sad vale of tears below,
Our anchor this of faith and love.
(Chorus.) Till God His vision shall bestow,
In Christ's triumphant Church above.
To God our Father raise the voice:
Invisible, Immortal King!
In our Redeemer's strength rejoice,
And to the Sacred Spirit sing.

258.

PSALM lxxvi.—1. (Chorus.) In Jewry is God known; His Name is great in Israel. 2. (Verse S.S.A.T.B.) At Salem is His tabernacle, and His dwelling in Sion. 3. (Chorus.) There brake He the arrows of the bow, the shield, the sword, and the battle.

No. 1. (Verse S. and Chorus S.A.)

In lowly guise thy King appeareth,
With meekness clad thy gates He neareth;
Jerusalem, Hosanna sing!
Meet Him with palms, glad honour doing;
With leafy boughs the path bestrewing;
So shalt thou welcome duly bring.

No. 2. (Chorus.)

O King indeed, though no man hail Thee!
O Leader true, though armies fail Thee!
O Prince of Peace, supreme in might!
The lords of earth would fain defeat Thee,
When Thou wouldst in Thy kingdom seat Thee,
Yet Thou to conquer needst not fight.
Thy realm is not of this world counted;
Yet, all the realms of earth surmounted,
Thine only shall have lasting sway.

(Verse S. and Chorus.)

Thy servants, faithful tidings bearing,
Go through the world, and peace declaring
To all mankind, prepare Thy way.

No. 3. (Verse S. and Chorus S.A.)

When Thou the stormy sea art crossing,
Down sink the waves that high were tossing,
The wind is hushed, rebuked by Thee.
Thou comest, though Thine own forsake Thee,
That all may for their Saviour take Thee,
That sin and death may fettered be.

No. 4. (Chorus.)

Thou, Lord of grace and truth unfailing,
O come to us, Thy glory veiling
Once more, and calm our troubled life.

No. 5. (Verse S.A.T.B. and Chorus.)

Need is there for Thyself, returning,
To bid mankind Thy peace be learning,
While yet the world is full of strife.

No. 6. (Verse S.A.T.B. and Chorus.

O may Thy light with us be dwelling,
Our darkness everywhere dispelling.

No. 7. (Chorus.)

And quenching strife, whene'er it come,
That all, of high estate or lowly,
May live as brethren, true and holy,
Made one within their Father's home.

(Advent Hymn.) SCHUMANN.

PSALM CXX.—1. (Full.) In my distress I cried unto the Lord, and He heard me. CXXXVIII.—1. I will praise Thee with my whole heart; before the gods will I praise Thee; unto Thee, O Lord, will I sing praise. Amen.

E. J. HOPKINS.

ISAIAH XXVI.—1. (Verse T.) In that day shall this song be sung in the land of Judah; We have a strong city; salvation will God appoint for walls and bulwarks. 2. (Chorus.) Open ye the gates, that the righteous nation which keepeth the truth may enter in. 3. (Verse T. and Chorus.) Thou wilt keep him in perfect peace whose mind is stayed on Thee, because he trusteth in Thee. Trust ye in the Lord for ever; for in the Lord Jehovah is everlasting strength. XXXIII.—2. (Chorale.) Be gracious unto us, O Lord, we have waited for Thee; be Thou our salvation in the time of trouble. 5. (Verse A. and Chorus.) The Lord is exalted; He dwelleth on high, He hath filled Zion with judgment and righteousness. Amen.

Sir GEORGE J. ELVEY.

GENESIS i.—1. (Verse B.) In the beginning God created the heaven and the earth. 2. And the earth was without form, and void; and darkness was upon the face of the deep. (Verse S.A.T.B.) And the Spirit of God moved upon the face of the waters. 3. And God said, Let there be light: and there was light. 4. (Verse T.) And God saw the light, that it was good; and God divided the light from the darkness. 7. (Verse T.B.) And God made the firmament, and divided the waters which were under the firmament from the waters which were above the firmament; and it was so. 9. And God said, Let the waters under the heavens be gathered together into one place, and let the dry land appear; and it was so. 10. And God called the dry land earth; and the gathering of waters called He seas; and God saw that it was good. 26. (Verse A.) And God said, Let us make man in Our own image. 27. In the image of God created He him. ii.—7. He breathed into his nostrils the breath of life; and man became a living soul.

PSALM xix.—1. (Chorus.)

The heavens are telling the glory of God,
The wonder of His works displays the firmament.

(Verse S.T.B.)

2. To-day that is coming speaks it the day;
The night that is gone to following night.

(Chorus.)

The heavens are telling the glory of God,
The wonder of His works displays the firmament.

(Verse S.T.B.)

4. In all the lands resounds the word,
3. Never unperceived, ever understood.

(Chorus.)

The heavens are telling the glory of God,
The wonder of His works displays the firmament.

NOTE.—The foregoing Chorus is sometimes sung to the following words:—

PSALM xix.—1. (Chorus.)

The heavens declare Thy glory, Lord,
The stars express their great Creator's skill.

(Verse S.T.B.)

2. The day fresh beams of knowledge brings,
From darkest night divine instruction springs.

(Chorus.)

The heavens declare Thy glory, Lord,
The stars express their great Creator's skill.

(Verse S.T.B.)

3. 'Tis Nature's voice, and understood alike by all mankind.

(Chorus.)

The heavens declare Thy glory, Lord,
The stars express their great Creator's skill.

HAYDN and Sir JOHN STEVENSON.

263.

PSALM xxxi.—1. (Full.) In Thee, O Lord, have I put my trust: let me never be put to confusion, deliver me in Thy righteousness. 2. Bow down Thine ear to me, make haste to deliver me. 3. And be Thou my strong rock and house of defence, that Thou mayest save me. 4. For Thou art my strong rock and my castle; be Thou also my guide, and lead me for Thy Name's sake. Amen.

PSALM xxxi.—1. (Chorus.) In Thee, O Lord, have I put my trust; let me never be put to confusion, deliver me in Thy righteousness. 2. (Verse A.B.) Bow down Thine ear to me, make haste to deliver me. 3. And be Thou my strong rock and house of my defence, that Thou mayest save me. 4. Be Thou also my guide, and lead me for Thy Name's sake. 5. (Chorus.) Draw me out of the net that they have laid privily for me, for Thou art my God. 6. Into Thy hands I commend my spirit, for Thou hast redeemed me, O Lord, Thou God of truth.

WELDON.

PSALM xi.—1. (Chorus.) In the Lord put I my trust; how say ye then to my soul, that she should flee as a bird unto the hill? 2. For lo, the ungodly bend their bow, and make ready their arrows within the quiver, that they may privily shoot at them that are true of heart. 4. (Verse A.T.B.B. and Chorus.) The Lord is in His holy temple; the Lord's seat is in heaven. 5. His eyes consider the poor, and His eyelids try the children of men. 7. (Chorus.) Upon the ungodly He shall rain snares, fire, storm, and tempest: this shall be their portion to drink. 8. For the righteous Lord loveth righteousness; His countenance will behold the thing that is just.

Sir ROBERT P. STEWART.

ISAIAH vi.—1. (Double Chorus.) I saw the Lord sitting upon a throne, high and lifted up, and His train filled the temple. 2. Above it stood the seraphim: each one had six wings; with twain he covered his face, with twain he covered his feet, and with twain he did fly. 3. And one cried unto another, Holy, Holy, Holy, is the Lord of hosts; the whole earth is full of His glory. 4. And the posts of the door moved at the voice of him that cried, and the house was filled with smoke.

(Verse S.A.T.B.) O Trinity! O Unity!
Be present as we worship Thee;
And with the songs that angels sing
Unite the hymns of praise we bring.

(Chorus.) Holy, Holy, Holy, is the Lord of hosts; the whole earth is full of His glory. Amen.

STAINER.

267.

S. MATT. vi.—25. (Verse S.) Is not the life more than meat, and the body than raiment? 26. Behold the fowls of the air: for they sow not, neither do they reap, nor gather into barns; yet your heavenly Father feedeth them. 28. (Verse S. and Chorus.) Consider the lilies of the field how they grow; they toil not, neither do they spin. 29. And yet I say unto you, that even Solomon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these.

TOPLIFF (arranged by J. C. MARKS).

PSALM xcii.—1. (Verse S.A.T.B) It is a good thing to give thanks unto the Lord, to sing praises to Thy Name. 2. To tell of Thy loving-kindness early in the morning, and of Thy truth in the night season. xxxiv.—22. (Verse S. and Chorus.) The Lord delivereth the souls of His servants; and they that put their trust in Him shall not be destitute. Amen.

269.

PSALM xcii.—1. (Chorus.) It is a good thing to give thanks unto the Lord, and to sing praises unto Thy Name, O most Highest. 2. To tell of Thy loving-kindness early in the morning, and of Thy truth in the night season. 12. (Verse S.A.T.B.) The righteous shall flourish like a palm-tree, and shall spread abroad, like a cedar in Libanus. 13. Such as are planted in the house of the Lord shall flourish in the courts of the house of our God. 14. (Chorus.) That they may shew how true the Lord my strength is; that there is no unrighteousness in Him. Thou, Lord, art most Highest for evermore.

(Chorus.) To God the Father, God the Son,
And God the Spirit, Three in One,
Praise, honour, might and glory be,
From age to age eternally. Amen.

PSALM xcii.—1. (Chorus.) It is a good thing to give thanks unto the Lord, and to sing praises unto Thy Name, O most Highest. 2. To tell of Thy loving-kindness early in the morning, and of Thy truth in the night season. 3. Upon an instrument of ten strings, and upon the lute; upon a loud instrument, and upon the harp. 4. For Thou, Lord, hast made me glad through Thy works: and I will rejoice in giving praise for the operation of Thy hands. 5. (Choral Recit. T.B.) O Lord, how glorious are Thy works! Thy thoughts are very deep. cii.—25. Of old Thou hast laid the foundation of the earth; and the heavens are the works of Thy hands. 26. They shall perish, but Thou shalt endure: they all shall wax old as doth a garment; 27. And as a vesture shalt Thou change them, and they shall be changed; but Thou art the same, and Thy years shall not fail. civ.—33. (Chorus.) I will sing unto the Lord as long as I live; I will praise my God while I have my being.

271.

PSALM xcii.—1. (Recit. S.) It is a good thing to give thanks unto the Lord, and to sing praises unto Thy Name, O most High. 2. To shew forth Thy loving-kindness in the morning, and Thy faithfulness every night. Blessed are they that dwell in Thy house; for a day in Thy courts is better than a thousand. I had rather be a doorkeeper in the house of my God, than to dwell in the tents of wickedness.

(Verse S.) This night I lift my heart to Thee,
Whose dwelling is in heaven above;
O deign to hear and answer me,
My Father, God of love.

Art Thou not Lord in every place?
Is there a thing beneath Thy care?
Though angels only see Thy face,
Yet Thou, O Lord, art everywhere.

O give Thine angels charge to keep
Their wings spread over me this night;
Let them defend me, let me sleep,
Till darkness melts in light.

Bless the Lord, my soul; and all that is within me, bless His holy Name. (Recit. S.) The Lord is thy keeper.

(Chorus S.S.A.A.)

No evil shall befall thee,
Dear object of His choice;
This night our Lord will call thee
In a still, small voice.
Thy God saith they that fear Him,
Shall heart and soul rejoice;
Then sleep, to wake and hear Him,
In a still, small voice.

(Eli.) Sir M. Costa.

272.

(Recit. T.) It is ended. Rev. xiv.—13. (Verse S.A.T.B. and Chorus.) Blest are the departed who in the Lord are sleeping, from henceforth for evermore; they rest from their labours, and their works follow them. xxi.—1. (Recit. S.) I saw a new heaven and a new earth, by God prepared and adorned as a bride. 3. Lo! the house of God is with men, and He will dwell among them, and they shall be His people. Nor sun shall be, nor moon: God is their sun; there shall His majesty unclouded rise. No earthly house is there: God is their temple, and their light. (Verse T.) Behold! He soon shall come, in His might arrayed, to give to every one according to his work. (Verse S.A.T.B.) Then come, Lord Jesus! xv.—3. (Chorus.) Great and wonderful are all Thy works, O Thou Almighty God! How just and true are all Thy commandments, Jehovah, King of saints! 4. (Verse and Chorus.) O Lord, who shall not fear Thee! Who shall not glorify Thee! All nations of the earth shall come and worship before Thy throne, for Thou alone art holy. (Chorus.) Thine is the kingdom, the power, and the glory, for evermore! Hallelujah! Amen.

273.

Rom. xiii.—11. (Verse S.A.T.B. and Chorus.) It is high time to awake out of sleep, for now is our salvation nearer than when we believed. 12. (Verse S.A.T.B.) The night is far spent; the day is at hand. (Chorus.) Let us therefore cast off the works of darkness, and let us put on the armour of light.

Psalm xl.—1. (Verse S.A.T.B.) I waited patiently for the Lord, and He inclined unto me, and heard my calling. 3. (Verse A.T.) And He hath put a new song in my mouth, even a thanksgiving unto our God. 4. Many shall see it, and fear, and shall put their trust in the Lord. 5. (Verse B.) Blessed is the man who hath set his hope in the Lord, and not turned back unto the proud, and to such as go about with lies. 20. (Verse A.) As for me, when I am poor and in misery, Thy help, O God, shall lift me up. xiii.—6. (Chorus.) I will sing of the Lord, because He hath dealt so lovingly with me; yea, I will praise the Name of the Lord most Highest.

REV. i.—10. (Verse T.B.B.) I was in the Spirit on the Lord's day. xix.—1. And I heard a great voice of much people in heaven, saying, Hallelujah, salvation, and glory, and honour, and power unto the Lord our God. 2. (Verse A. and Chorus.) For true and righteous are His judgments: and again they said, 3. Hallelujah. 4. (Verse B. and A.T.B.B.) And the four and twenty elders and the four beasts fell down and worshipped God that sat on the throne, saying, Amen. And again they said, Hallelujah. 5. (Verse T. and Chorus.) And a voice came out of the throne, saying, Praise our God, all ye His servants, and ye that fear Him, both small and great. 6. And I heard as it were the voice of a great multitude, and as the voice of many waters, and as the voice of mighty thunderings, saying, Hallelujah. (Verse B. and A.T.B.B.) For the Lord God Omnipotent reigneth. 7. Let us be glad and rejoice, and give honour to Him, for the marriage of the Lamb is come. (Verse A.T.B.B. and Chorus.) Hallelujah.

PSALM XVIII.—50, 51. (Recit. T.) I will give thanks unto Thee, O Lord, among the Gentiles, and sing praises unto Thy Name. (Recit. S.) Great prosperity giveth He unto His king, and sheweth loving-kindness unto David, His anointed, and unto his seed for evermore.

*(Verse T.) I love the Lord because He heard me;
My tongue shall ever sing His praise.
Remember, Lord, Thy tender mercies,
And teach Thy servant all Thy ways.

(Verse S.) The Lord beholdeth His anointed,
Regards his woes, and hears his prayers;
The terrors of his foes surround him,
But God will save him from their snares.

(Verse S.T.) How great the pain, the grief, the anguish,
Wherewith Jehovah tries {me / him} still;
But greater far His loving-kindness
To those who keep His holy will.

(Chorus.) Hallelujah! power and glory to the Lord Jehovah's Name. Praise the Lord, ye everlasting choir, in holy songs of joy; worlds unborn shall sing His glory; Hallelujah to the Lord Jehovah's Name.

PSALM cxxi.—1. (Chorus.) I will lift up mine eyes unto the hills, from whence cometh my help. 2. (Verse S.S. and T.B.) My help cometh even from the Lord. (Chorus.) Who hath made heaven and earth. 5. (Verse B.) The Lord Himself is thy keeper; the Lord is thy defence upon thy right hand. 6. (Verse S.S.) So that the sun shall not burn thee by day, neither the moon by night. 7. (Chorus.) The Lord shall preserve thee from all evil; yea, it is He that shall keep thy soul. 8. The Lord shall preserve thy going out. (Verse S.A.T.B.) Thy going out and coming in. 7. (Chorus.) From this time forth for evermore, the Lord shall preserve thee from all evil; yea, it is He that shall keep thy soul. Hallelujah. Amen.

PSALM xviii.—1. (Verse T.B.) I will love Thee, O Lord, my strength; the Lord is my stony rock, and my defence, my Saviour, my God, and my might, in Whom I will trust, my buckler, the horn also of my salvation, and my refuge. 2. (Verse T.) I will call upon the Lord, which is worthy to be praised; so shall I be safe from mine enemies. 3. (Verse B.) The sorrows of death compassed me, and the overflowings of ungodliness made me afraid. 4. The pains of hell came about me; the snares of death overtook me. 5. In my trouble I will call upon the Lord, and complain unto my God. 6. (Verse T.B.) So shall He hear my voice out of His holy temple; and my complaint shall come before Him, it shall enter even into His ears. 7. (Chorus.) The earth trembled and quaked; the very foundations of the hills shook, and were removed, because He was wroth. 13. (Verse T.B.) The Lord also thundered out of heaven, and the Highest gave His thunder, hailstones and coals of fire. 16. (Verse T.B. and Chorus.) He shall send down from on high to fetch me, and shall take me out of many waters. 21. Because I have kept the ways of the Lord, and have not forsaken my God.

(Chorale, Quartet and Chorus.)

O Thou, the true and only Light,
Direct the souls that walk in night;
And bring them 'neath Thy sheltering care,
To find their blest redemption there.
Illumine those who blindly roam;
O call the wanderer kindly home:
The hearts astray that union crave,
And those in doubt, confirm and save.

GENESIS xxxii.—24.

(Full.) I wrestle and pray, till blessed by Thee;
My Saviour, I wrestle and pray, till blessed by Thee;
Jesu, my Saviour, I wrestle and pray, till blessed by Thee.

(Chorale.) Thou art my God, Almighty Lord;
I know by Thy unchanging word,
Thine is a Father's heart;
Yet I, though dust, for comfort flee,
And find it while I cleave to Thee.

O Jesu, Son of God, I raise
My voice to Thee in hymns of praise
For Thy redeeming grace:
Increase my faith, and strengthen me,
That I may pray and cleave to Thee.

And while I hail Thy love divine,
O Spirit, make its comforts mine,
The blessings Jesus brought.
Thus, great and undivided Three,
May I for ever cleave to Ye.

PSALM xliii.—1. (Full, for an Eight-part Chorus.) Judge me, O God, and plead my cause against an ungodly nation; O deliver me from the deceitful and wicked man. 2. For Thou art the God of my strength; O why dost Thou cast me from Thee? Wherefore mourn I because the enemy sorely oppresseth me? 3. Send out Thy light and truth, Lord: O let them lead me, and bring me unto Thy holy hill, and to Thy dwelling-place. 4. And then will I go to the altar of God, the God of my gladness and joy. I will praise Thee upon the harp, O my God. 5. O my soul, why art thou cast downward, and why art thou disquieted within me? 6. Hope in the Lord, O my soul, for I will praise Him, Who is the health of my countenance, and my gracious Lord and God.

MENDELSSOHN.

(Verse T. and Chorus.) King all glorious, Lord of Hosts Almighty, Thou art revealed in victory, over all the worlds of light ascending. (Verse B. and Chorus.) We pray Thee leave us not comfortless, but send the great Father's promise on us, the Spirit of Truth, Thy Spirit. Hallelujah. Amen.

(Chorus.) Lead, kindly Light, amid the encircling gloom,
Lead Thou me on;
The night is dark, and I am far from home,
Lead Thou me on.
Keep Thou my feet; I do not ask to see
The distant scene; one step enough for me.

(Verse S. or T.) I was not ever thus, nor prayed that Thou
Shouldst lead me on;
I loved to choose and see my path; but now
Lead Thou me on.
I loved the garish day, and, spite of fears,
Pride ruled my will: remember not past years.

(Chorus.) So long Thy power hath blest me, sure it still Will lead me on
O'er moor and fen, o'er crag and torrent, till
The night is gone,
And with the morn those angel-faces smile
Which I have loved long since, and lost awhile.

326.

(Chorale.) Let all men praise the Lord,
In worship lowly bending:
On His most Holy Word,
Redeemed from woe depending,
He gracious is and just,
From childhood us doth lead;
On Him we place our trust
And hope, in time of need.

Glory and praise to God,
The Father, Son, be given,
And to the Holy Ghost,
On high enthroned in heaven.
Praise to the Three-One God;
With powerful arm and strong,
He changeth night to day;
Praise Him with grateful song.

From the Liturgy. (Verse and Full.) Lord, have mercy upon us.

Glory be to God on high, and in earth peace, good will towards men. We praise Thee, we bless Thee, we worship Thee, we glorify Thee, we give thanks to Thee for Thy great glory, O Lord God, heavenly King, God the Father Almighty. O Lord, the only begotten Son Jesus Christ; O Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, that takest away the sins of the world, have mercy upon us. Thou that takest away the sins of the world, have mercy upon us. Thou that takest away the sins of the world, receive our prayer. Thou that sittest at the right hand of God the Father, have mercy upon us. For Thou only art holy; Thou only art the Lord; Thou only, O Christ, with the Holy Ghost, art most high in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

PSALM iii.—1. (Verse T.B.) Lord, how are they increased that trouble me; many are they that rise up against me. 2. Many a one there be that say of my soul, There is no help for him in his God. 1. (Chorus.) Lord, how are they increased that trouble me. 3. (Verse B.) But Thou, O Lord, art my defender; Thou art my worship, and the lifter up of my head. 4. (Verse T.) I did call upon the Lord with my voice; and He heard me out of His holy hill. 5. I laid me down and slept, and rose up again; for the Lord sustained me. 6. (Verse A.T.B. and Chorus.) I will not be afraid for ten thousands of the people that have set themselves against me round about. 8. Salvation belongeth unto the Lord; and Thy blessing is upon Thy people.

PSALM lxxix.—5. (Full.) Lord, how long wilt Thou be angry? shall Thy jealousy burn like fire for ever? 6. Pour out Thine indignation upon the heathen, and upon the kingdoms that have not called upon Thy Name. 7. For they have devoured Jacob and laid waste His dwelling-place. 8. O remember not our old sins, but have mercy upon us; for we are come to great misery. 9. Keep us, O God of our salvation, for the glory of Thy Name; O deliver us, and be merciful unto our sins, for Thy Name's sake.

PSALM xxxix.—5. (Chorus.) Lord, let me know mine end and the number of my days, that I may be certified how long I have to live. 6. Behold, Thou hast made my days as it were a span long, and mine age is even as nothing in respect of Thee; and verily every man living is altogether vanity. 7. (Verse S.S. or T.T.) For man walketh in a vain shadow, and disquieteth himself in vain; he heapeth up riches, and cannot tell who shall gather them. 8. (Chorus.) And now, Lord, what is my hope? truly my hope is even in Thee. 13. Hear my prayer, O Lord, and with Thine ears consider my calling; hold not Thy peace at my tears. 15. O spare me a little, that I may recover my strength before I go hence, and be no more seen.

(Double Chorus.)

Lord, let us hear Thy voice, while humbly bending
Then shall we feel its holy soothing power:
As when the dews of spring descending
Revive each drooping herb and flower.

(Verse S.A.)

Promised joys! menaced woes! O mystic gloom impending!
These cries of doubt, forbear:
Our God will make all clear.
Let us revere Him,
And humbly fear Him.

(Chorus.)

Revere Him,
And humbly fear Him:
His frowns will prove
But hidden smiles of love.

(Verse S.S.A. and Chorus.)

Hearts feel, that love Thee,
No evil can disturb their rest:
Craving Thy grace, Lord, granted ere they implore Thee,
Thus are they ever blest.
On the earth, in Thy realms of glory,
Nought can exceed the joy, the calm and holy rest,
Of hearts, pure hearts, that love Thee!

(Chorus.)

Heaven and the earth display His grandeur is unbounded;
They declare He is God; They resound His endless fame.

PSALM xc.—12. (Verse A.T.B.) Lord, teach us to number our days, that we apply our hearts unto wisdom. 13. Turn Thee again, O Lord, at the last, and be gracious unto Thy servants. 14. O satisfy us with Thy mercy; so shall we rejoice and be glad all the days of our life. (Chorus.) So shall we rejoice and be glad all the days of our life. 15. (Verse A.T.B.) Comfort us again, O Lord, now after the time that Thou hast plagued us; and for the years wherein we have suffered adversity. 16. Shew Thy servants Thy work, and their children Thy glory. 17. And the glorious Majesty of the Lord our God be upon us. (Chorus.) Prosper Thou the work of our hands upon us, O prosper Thou our handy-work.

ACTS iv.—24. (Full.) Lord, Thou alone art God; and Thine are the heavens, the earth, and mighty waters. 26. The heathen furiously rage, Lord, against Thee, and against Thy Christ. 29. Now, behold, lest our foes prevail, Lord, grant to Thy servants all strength and joyfulness, that they may preach Thy word.

(Chorale.) To God on high be thanks and praise,
Who deigns our bonds to sever;
His cares our drooping souls upraise,
And harm shall reach us never.
On Him we rest, with faith assured,
Of all that live the mighty Lord,
For ever and for ever.

Thou turnest man to destruction; again Thou sayest, Come again, ye children of men. 4. (Chorus.) For a thousand years in Thy sight are but as yesterday, seeing that is past as a watch in the night. 5. (Verse A.T.B.) As soon as Thou scatterest them they are even as a sleep, and fade away suddenly like the grass. 9. (Verse B.) For when Thou art angry all our days are gone: we bring our years to an end, as it were a tale that is told. 10. (Verse A.T.B.) The days of our age are threescore years and ten; and though men be so strong that they come to fourscore years, yet is their strength then but labour and sorrow, so soon passeth it away, and we are gone. 4. (Chorus.) For a thousand years in Thy sight are but as yesterday, seeing that is past as a watch in the night.

1 KINGS i.—13. (Recit. T.) Man of God, now let my words be precious in thy sight. Thus saith Jezebel; Elijah is worthy to die. So the mighty gather against thee, and they have prepared a net for thy steps; that they may seize thee, that they may slay thee. Arise, then, and hasten for thy life; to the wilderness journey. The Lord thy God doth go with thee: He will not fail thee, He will not forsake thee. Now begone, and bless me also. (Recit. B.) Though stricken, they have not grieved! Tarry here, my servant: the Lord be with thee. I journey hence to the wilderness. 1 KINGS xix.—4. (Verse B.) It is enough, O Lord; now take away my life, for I am not better than my fathers! I desire to live no longer: now let me die, for my days are but vanity! 10. I have been very jealous for the Lord God of hosts! for the Children of Israel have broken Thy covenant, thrown down Thine altars, and slain Thy prophets with the sword: and I, even I, only am left; and they seek my life to take it away. xix.—5. (Recit. T.) See, now he sleepeth beneath a juniper tree in the wilderness. PSALM xxxiv.—7. And there the angels of the Lord encamp round about all them that fear Him.

PSALM cxxi.—1. (Verse S.S.A.) Lift thine eyes to the mountains, whence cometh help. 2. Thy help cometh from the Lord, the Maker of heaven and earth. 3. I am poured out like water, and my bones are also out of joint. (Chorus.) My heart within my body is melted like unto wax. 15. Now my strength is dried up even like a potsherd, and my tongue cleaveth to my jaws; Thou hast laid me in the dust of death. 16. For dogs have compassed my dwelling, and assemblies of the wicked have enclosed me; my hands and my feet they have pierced in anger. 18. They part my garments among them, and for my vesture they cast lots. 19. (Verse S.) Be not Thou far from me, O Lord. (Chorus.) O my strength, haste Thee to help me. 20. (Verse T.) Deliver Thou my soul from the sword. (Chorus.) And my darling from the dog's power. 21. (Verse B.) Save me from the mouth of the lion. (Chorus.) From the horns of the unicorn Thou hast heard me. 22. I will declare Thy Name to my brethren; in the congregation I will praise Thee. 23. O praise the Lord, all ye that fear Him; and honour Him, all the seed of Jacob; fear Him, all ye that are of the seed of Israel. 24. For He hath not despised nor abhorred the poor in affliction, neither hath He hid His face from him; but when to Him he cried, He heard his voice. 25. Thee will I praise, Lord, in the great congregation; I will pay all my vows in the sight of them that fear Him. 26. (Verse S.T. and Chorus.) The meek shall eat, and shall be satisfied; and they with their hearts shall praise the Lord that seek Him, and your heart shall live for ever. 27. (Verse S.T.) PART I.

(Chorus.) New every morning is the love
Our wakening and uprising prove;
Through sleep and darkness safely brought,
Restored to life, and power, and thought.

New mercies, each returning day,
Hover around us while we pray;
New perils past, new sins forgiven,
New thoughts of God, new hopes of heaven.

As for some dear familiar strain,
Untired we ask and ask again,
Ever in its melodious store
Finding a spell unheard before:

Such is the bliss of souls serene
When they have sworn and steadfast mean;
Counting the cost, in all to espy
Their God, in all themselves deny.

(Verse S.) Holy Father, hear my cry,
Holy Saviour, bend Thine ear,
Holy Spirit, come Thou nigh,
Father, Saviour, Spirit hear.
Holy Spirit! come Thou nigh;
Holy Father, hear my cry.

Father, save me from my sin,
Holy Saviour! I Thy mercy crave;
Gracious Spirit, make me clean,
Father, Son, and Spirit save.
Holy Spirit, come Thou nigh,
Holy Father, hear my cry.

(Chorus.) Worship, honour, glory, blessing,
Lord we offer to Thy Name.
Young and old their praise expressing,
Join Thy goodness to proclaim.
Now to Him Who loved us, gave us
Every pledge that love could give,
Freely shed His blood to save us,
Gave His life that we might live:
Be the kingdom and dominion,
And the glory evermore,
Jesus Christ is our Redeemer,
Hallelujah. Praise the Lord.

(Recit. B.) O dead to life! wilt thou the life from heaven
Reject, the life so freely given?
Wilt thou choose sin and tears
Through everlasting years?

(Verse B. and Chorus.) Life nor death shall us dissever,
From His love Who reigns for ever;
Will He fail us? never! never!
When to Him we cry.
But His might shall still befriend us,
And His blessed Son defend us,
And His Holy Spirit send us
Comfort ere we die.

(Verse Contralto.) Cling to the Crucified,
His death is life to thee;
Life for eternity.
His pains thy pardon seal,
His stripes thy bruises heal,
His cross proclaims thy peace,
Bids every sorrow cease.
His blood is all to thee,
It purges thee from sin,
It keeps thy conscience clean.
His is a heart of love,
Full as the hearts above.
Its depths of sympathy
Are all awake for thee.
His countenance is light
Even in the darkest night:
That love shall never change,
That light shall ne'er grow dim;
Charge thou thy faithless heart,
To find its all in Him.
Cling to the Crucified,
His death is life to thee;
For eternity.

(Chorus.) Love strong as death, nay stronger,
Love mightier than the grave!
Broad as the earth, longer than ocean's widest wave;
This is the love, the love that sought us,
This is the love, the love that bought us,
To gladdest day from saddest night,
From deepest shame to glory bright,
From depths of death to life's fair height,
This is the love that sought us.
This is the love that leadeth us to His table here,
This is the love that spreadeth this royal cheer.

Part II.

(Verse S.) In the hour of trial,
Jesu! pray for me,
Lest by base denial,
I depart from Thee.
When Thou seest me waver,
With a look recall;
Nor for fear or favour,
Suffer me to fall.

With its witching pleasures
Would this vain world charm,
Or its sordid treasures
Spread to work me harm;
Bring to my remembrance
Sad Gethsemane,
Or, in darker semblance,
Cross-crowned Calvary.

When in dust and ashes,
To the grave I sink,
While heaven's glory flashes
O'er the shelving brink;
On Thy truth relying,
Through that mortal strife,
Lord receive me, dying,
To eternal life.

(Chorus.) Praise the Lord, for He is glorious,
Never shall His promise fail;
God hath made His saints victorious,
Sin and death shall not prevail.
Praise the God of our salvation,
Hosts on high, His power proclaim;
Heaven and earth and all creation
Laud and magnify His name.

PART III.

(Recit. T.) Who are these like stars appearing,
These before God's throne who stand?
Each a golden crown is wearing,
Who are all this glorious band?
Alleluia! hark! they sing,
Praising loud their heavenly King.

(Chorus of Angels.) Rest in the Lord!
Blest in the Lord,
Washed in the blood of Him that was slain;
Glorious the throng,
Raising the song,
Thousands and thousands are swelling the strain,
Holy! holy! Lord of hosts!
God everlasting all ages before.
Angels adore;
Saints bow before;
Heaven with Thy glory is filled evermore.
Past the deep wave,
Past the dark grave;
Death with its terrors, life with its tears;
Christ is our own
King on His throne:
Love that is perfect hath cast out her fears.
Through great tribulations past,
Sweet our rest in heaven above:
White our array,
Sin washed away,
Ever to live in the light of His love!
Raise high the song,
Sing the new psalm,
Casting your crowns before the throne of gold.
Praise to the Lord,
Praise to the Lamb,
Glory and honour and praise as of old.
Hallelujah!
Hallelujah!
Glory and wisdom and blessing and power
Be to the Lord,
Be to the Lamb.
Praise to our God and the Lamb evermore.

PART IV.

(Verse S.S.A.) Where the faded flower shall freshen,
Freshen never more to fade;
Where the shaded sky shall brighten,
Brighten never more to shade.

Where the sun-blaze never scorches,
Where the star-beams cease to chill,
Where no tempest stirs the echoes
Of the wood, or wave, or hill.

Where the morn shall wake in gladness,
And the noon the joy prolong;
Where the daylight dies in fragrance
'Mid the burst of holy song.

Brother, we shall meet and rest
'Mid the holy and the blest.

(Recit. T.) Watchers of the weary night,
While they pace their lonely round,
Listen for the trumpet's sound,
Seek the dawning light.

(Verse T.) When shall lighten forth Thy sign
Through the heavens? O Lord, how long?
When, amid the radiant throng,
Shall Thy coming shine?

Come, Lord, and tarry not;
O bring the looked-for day.
Thee we greet with longing love,
O greet us from above!

(Chorus.) Worship, honour, power, blessing,
Thou art worthy to receive;
Loudest praises, without ceasing,
Meet it is for us to give.
Without ceasing, let us give
To Thee loudest praise.
Help, ye bright angelic spirits,
Bring your sweetest, noblest lays;
Help to sing our Saviour's merits,
Help to chant Emmanuel's praise.
Soon we shall, with those in glory,
His transcendent grace relate,
Gladly sing the amazing story
Of His dying love so great.
Worship, honour, power, blessing,
Thou art worthy to receive.
Hallelujah. Amen.

(Recit. B.) Night falleth round me, O Lord! Be Thou not far from me; hide not Thy face, O Lord, from me; my soul is thirsting for Thee, as a thirsty land. 1 KINGS xix.—11. Arise, now, get thee without, stand on the mount before the Lord; for there His glory will appear and shine on thee. Thy face must be veiled, for He draweth near. (Chorus.) Behold, God the Lord passed by; and a mighty wind rent the mountains around, brake in pieces the rocks, brake them before the Lord: but yet the Lord was not in the tempest. Behold, God the Lord passed by, and the sea was upheaved, and the earth was shaken; but yet the Lord was not in the earthquake. 12. And after the earthquake there came a fire: but yet the Lord was not in the fire. And after the fire there came a still, small voice: and in that still voice, onward came the Lord. ISAIAH vi.—2. (Recit. A.) Above Him stood the seraphim, and one cried to another: 3. (Verse S.S.A.A. and Chorus.) Holy, Holy, Holy, is God the Lord: the Lord Sabaoth! Now His glory hath filled all the earth.

HEB. xii.—11. (Recit. T.) No chastening for the present seemeth to be joyous, but grievous; nevertheless afterwards it yieldeth the peaceable fruit of righteousness. 6. For whom the Lord loveth He chasteneth, and scourgeth every son whom He receiveth. PSALM xxxiv.—11. (Verse.) Come, ye children, and hearken unto me; I will teach you the fear of the Lord. 6. Lo, the poor crieth, and the Lord heareth him; yea, and saveth him out of all his trouble. 18. (Verse S.A.T.B.) The Lord is nigh unto them that are of a contrite heart, and will save such as be of an humble spirit. ISAIAH lvii.—18. Thus saith the Lord, I have seen his ways and will heal him, and restore comforts unto him, and to his mourners. lxiii.—16. (Chorus.) Thou, O Lord, art our Father, our Redeemer; Thy Name is from everlasting. Hallelujah. Amen.

(Verse T. and Chorus.) Henceforth, when ye hear His voice entreating, turn not deaf ears, shew not hard hearts, as at Meribah they did, and at Massa in the desert; 9. When your fathers tempted and proved Me, and witnessed My work. 10. After forty years grief at this disobedient race, I said, 'Tis a people that do err, and in their hearts rebel, and that of My statutes are still unmindful; 11. Unto whom I sware in My wrath that they should not behold the land of promise.

PART III.*

PSALM XCV.—5. (Verse T. and Chorus.) For His is the sea, and He hath fashioned it; His hands have formed and prepared the dry land. O come, let us worship and kneel before the Lord; come, bow the knee to the Lord, the Lord our Maker. For He is the Lord our God, and we the flock of His pasture. O come, let us worship and kneel before the Lord, come worship Him.

423.

(Full S.A.T.T.B.) O come near to the cross whereon hangs our Redeemer. Ye faithful, shed your tears, for your Lord pours His life-blood for the world's salvation! O behold, as ye weep, your Lord hung on His cross, the spotless victim, how He bleeds, how He dies, how He drinks to the dregs the bitter cup of sorrow; dying to give us life. Ah, behold! what a scene to our eyes is unfolded. With scourges He is torn; with thorns and cruel nails, and with spear He is wounded. For us thus sacrificed. Hear us, O Saviour, and pardon all our sins, and give us life in Thee. Thou hast suffered for us. We have planted Thy bitter cross on Mount Golgotha. O grant us Thy grace, our cold hearts to kindle, and to quicken our faith. Thou hast ransomed our souls from the grave and from hell; Thou hast saved Thy redeemed. Lord, we offer to Thee our grateful love and praises at the foot of the cross. Who suffer here with Thee shall reign with Thee in glory, in joy, and love, and peace. Soon, ah soon from the grave shall Thy all-quickening Spirit call us to life again. Lord, our Redeemer, O hear Thou our petition; bow Thine ear to our prayer. Lord grant us life eternal.

(Full S.A.T.T.B.B.) O day of penitence! O day of mourning! Remember how the incarnate Son of God, nailed to His cross, hung between earth and heaven, was put to death by His own people's hands. To save us all from Satan's iron bondage, He bore with patience all these cruel wrongs; O come, let us with hearts and voices utter our grief, and weep beside His tomb. Come, let us kneel in sorrow and contrition before the cross, which His pure blood doth lave. Come, rich and poor, offer Him all your hearts, Who gave Himself the world to save! Just as the sea by stormy winds is driven, whose angry waves do hoarsely rage and roar; the people with madness to the slaughter are crowding, and shouting, To death! To death! Crucify Him! Striving to save Him, Pilate vainly laboured: His cruel foes thirst for their victim's blood. Behold, they crown with thorns His sacred head, beat Him with scourges, and then smite Him on His cheek. Come, let us kneel in sorrow and contrition before the cross, which His pure blood doth lave. Come, rich and poor, offer Him all your hearts, Who gave Himself the world to save. Slowly, ah slowly, drag on the fatal hours! Now, having drained His bitter cup of pain, the Lamb of God completes His sacrifice. Into His Father's hands commends His spirit; cries with loud voice, "It is finished," and expires. Then, as He died, darkness obscured the land; in dim eclipse the earth with horror shook, the temple trembled, the veil was rent in twain. Come, let us kneel in sorrow and contrition before His cross, which His pure blood doth lave. Come, rich and poor, offer Him all your hearts, Who gave Himself the world to save!

PSALM cvi.—1. (Verse S. and Chorus.) O give thanks unto the Lord, for He is gracious, and His mercy endureth for ever. 2. Who can express the noble acts of the Lord, or shew forth all His praise? 3. O blessed are they that alway keep judgment, and do righteousness. 4. Remember me, O Lord, according to the favour that Thou bearest unto Thy people; O visit me with Thy salvation. 5. That I may see the felicity of Thy chosen, and rejoice in the gladness of Thy people, and give thanks with Thine inheritance.

434.

PSALM cvii.—1. (Verse A.B. and Chorus.) O give thanks unto the Lord. 2. Let them give thanks whom the Lord hath redeemed, and delivered from the hand of the enemy. 16. (Verse B.) For He hath broken the gates of brass. 14. He hath brought them out of darkness, and the shadow of death. 13. And delivereth them from their distress. 15. (Verse A.B.) O that men would therefore praise the Lord for His goodness, and declare the wonders that He doeth for the children of men! 22. (Verse A.) That they would offer unto Him the sacrifice of thanksgiving, and tell out His works with gladness. 21. (Chorus.) O that men would therefore praise the Lord for His goodness. 22. That they would offer unto Him the sacrifice of thanksgiving, and tell out His works with gladness!

PSALM cvii.—1. (Chorus.) O give thanks unto the Lord, for He is gracious, and His mercy endureth for ever. 2. Let them give thanks whom the Lord hath redeemed, and delivered from the hand of the enemy. 4. (Recit. and Verse S.S.) They went astray in the wilderness out of the way, and found no city to dwell in. 5. Hungry and thirsty their soul fainted in them, 6. And they cried unto the Lord in their trouble, and He delivered them from their distress. 7. He led them forth by the right way, that they might go to the city where they dwelt. 8. (Chorus.) O that men would therefore praise the Lord, for His goodness; and declare the wonders that He doeth for the children of men.

PSALM cvii.—1. (Chorus.) O give thanks unto the Lord, for He is gracious, and His mercy endureth for ever. 2. Let them give thanks whom the Lord hath redeemed, and delivered them from the hand of the enemy. 3. And gathered them out of the lands, from the east, and from the west, from the north, and from the south. 4. (Verse S.A.T.B.) They went astray in the wilderness out of the way, and found no city to dwell in. 7. Hungry and thirsty their soul fainted in them. 6. So they cried unto the Lord in their trouble, and He delivered them from their distress. 8. (Chorus.) O that men would therefore praise the Lord, for His goodness; and declare the wonders that He doeth for the children of men. 1. O give thanks unto the Lord, for He is gracious, and His mercy endureth for ever.

PSALM cxviii.—1. (Chorus.) O give thanks unto the Lord, for He is gracious, and His mercy endureth for ever. 5. I called upon the Lord in trouble, and the Lord heard me at large. 7. The Lord taketh my part with them that help me, therefore shall I see my desire upon mine enemies. 14. The Lord is my strength and my song, and He is become my salvation. 15. The voice of joy and health is in the dwellings of the righteous; the right hand of the Lord bringeth mighty things to pass. 16. (Recit. B.) The right hand of the Lord hath the pre-eminence, the right hand of the Lord bringeth mighty things to pass. 17. (Verse S.A.T.B.) I shall not die, but live, and declare the works of the Lord. 18. The Lord hath chastened and corrected me; but He hath not given me over unto death. 19. (Recit. B.) Open me the gates of righteousness, that I may go into them, and give thanks unto the Lord. 20. (Verse B.) This is the gate of the Lord; the righteous shall enter into it. 21. I will thank Thee, for Thou hast heard me, and art become my salvation. 22. (Recit. and Verse T.) The same stone which the builders refused is become the head-stone in the corner. 23. This is the Lord's doing, and it is marvellous in our eyes. 24. This is the day which the Lord hath made; we will rejoice and be glad in it. 25. (Verse A.) Help me now, O Lord; O Lord, send us now prosperity. 28. Thou art my God, and I will thank Thee; Thou art my God, and I will praise Thee. 25. (Verse A.T.T.B.) Help me now, O Lord; O Lord, send us now prosperity. 29. (Chorus.) O give thanks unto the Lord, for He is gracious, and His mercy endureth for ever.

O give thanks unto the God of all gods, for His mercy endureth for ever. 3. O thank the Lord of all lords, for His mercy endureth for ever. 4. Who only doeth great wonders, for His mercy endureth for ever. 5. Who by His excellent wisdom made the heavens, 6. And laid out the earth above the waters, for His mercy endureth for ever. 7. Who hath made great lights, for His mercy endureth for ever. 8. The sun to rule the day, for His mercy endureth for ever. 9. The moon and the stars to govern the night, for His mercy endureth for ever. 10. (Recit. B.) Who smote Egypt with their first-born, 11. And brought out Israel from among them, 12. With a mighty hand, and stretched-out arm. 13. Who divided the Red Sea in two parts, 14. And made Israel to go through the midst of it. 15. (Chorus.) But as for Pharaoh and his host, He overthrew them in the Red Sea. 23. (Verse A.T.B.) Who remembered us when we were in trouble, 24. And hath delivered us from our enemies. 27. (Chorus.) O give thanks unto the Lord, for He is gracious, and His mercy endureth for ever. Amen.

(Chorus.) O God, Lord God, when Thou appearest darkness flies. Thy light and Thy glory shine forth on the earth, and Thou, O Lord, art exalted above all gods. We worship Thy glorious Name, O Lord God Almighty. (Verse T.B.) Thou only art my rock and my salvation, I shall not be moved; Thou art my salvation and my glory, my refuge, the rock of my strength. (Chorus.) My glory, my refuge, O Lord of all power and might; our Lord is exalted above all gods. (Verse S.A.) O praise the Lord, all ye people, and praise Him all ye lands: His merciful kindness endureth for ever, praise Him in songs of joy. (Chorus.) We praise Thee, O Lord our God, we praise Thee; we worship Thy glorious Name, O Lord God Almighty. (Verse T.B.) Be Thou exalted, O God, above all heavens. (Verse S.A.) Be Thou exalted above all heavens; Thy glory above all the earth. (Chorus.) O God, Lord God, when Thou appearest darkness flies; for Thou, Lord, art greater than all that are in the earth. And Thou, O Lord, art exalted above all gods. We worship Thy glorious Name, O Lord God Almighty.

PSALM iv.—1. (Verse S.T.) O God of my righteousness, hear me when I call; Thou hast set me at liberty when I was in trouble; have mercy upon me, and hearken unto my prayer. 2. (Verse T.) O ye sons of men, how long will ye blaspheme Mine honour, and have pleasure in vanity? 3. Know this, the Lord hath chosen to Himself the man that is godly. 9. (Verse S.) I will lay me down in peace, and take my rest; for it is Thou, O Lord, that makest me to dwell in safety. 5. (Chorus.) Offer the sacrifice of righteousness, and put your trust in the Lord. 4. Stand in awe and sin not, and put your trust in the Lord.

PSALM lxxiv.—1. (Chorus.) O God, wherefore art Thou absent from us so long? (Verse S.S.A.T.B.) Why is Thy wrath so hot against the sheep of Thy pasture? 2. (Chorus.) O think upon Thy congregation, whom Thou hast purchased and redeemed of old. 3. (Verse A.T.B.) Think upon the tribe of thine inheritance. (Chorus.) And Mount Sion, wherein Thou hast dwelt. 1. O God, wherefore art Thou absent from us so long?

BLOW.

PSALM lxxiv.—1. (Semi-Chorus.) O God, wherefore art Thou absent from us so long: why is Thy wrath so hot against the sheep of Thy pasture? Is Thy mercy clean gone for ever: and wilt Thou be so more entreated? Spare us, good Lord, spare Thy people, whom

Thou hast redeemed with Thy precious blood, and be not angry with us for ever. Thou hast said, I will never leave thee nor forsake thee. Leave us not, neither forsake us, O God of our salvation. (Verse and Semi-Chorus.) O Lord, save the king; who putteth his trust in Thee. Send him help from Thy holy place, and evermore mightily defend him. Be unto him a strong tower from the face of his enemies, and let not the wicked approach to hurt him. xli.—3. Comfort him, when he lieth sick upon his bed: make Thou all his bed in sickness. O Lord, hear our prayer, and let our cry come unto Thee. xxxix.—12. (Verse A.) When Thou with rebukes dost chasten man for sin, Thou makest his beauty to consume away, like as it were a moth fretting a garment: verily, every man living is altogether vanity. xc.—10. (Verse A.T.B.) The days of our age are threescore years and ten; and though men be so strong that they come to fourscore years, yet is their strength then but labour and sorrow; so soon passeth it away, and we are gone. (Chorus and Verse.) But the merciful goodness of the Lord endureth for ever; even upon such as keep His covenant, and think upon His commandments to do them.

(Full.) O Holy Ghost, into our minds,
Send down Thy heavenly light;
Kindle our hearts with fervent love,
To serve God day and night.

Thou art the very Comforter,
In grief and all distress,
The heavenly gift of God most high,
No tongue can it express.

Such measures of Thy powerful grace
Grant, Lord, to us we pray,
That Thou mayest be our Comforter
At the last awful day. Amen.

PSALM lxxi.—7. (Verse B.) O let my mouth be filled with Thy praise; that I may sing of Thy glory and honour all the day long. 13. I will daily speak of Thy righteousness and salvation: for I know no end thereof. 14. I will go forth in Thy strength, O Lord, and will make mention of Thy judgments. 15. Thou, O God, hast taught me ever since I was born. (Chorus.) Thou, O God, hast taught me ever since I was born. (Verse B. and Chorus.) Therefore will I tell of Thy wondrous works. 16. (Verse B.) Forsake me not, O God, in mine age; until I have shewed Thy strength unto this generation, and Thy power to all them that are to come. 17. Thy righteousness, O God, is very high; and great things are they that Thou hast done. O God, who is like unto Thee? 18. O what great troubles and adversities hast Thou shewed me! yet didst Thou turn and refresh me. 19. Thou hast brought me to great honour, and comforted me on every side. 20. Therefore will I praise Thee and Thy faithfulness, O God, playing upon an instrument of music; unto Thee will I sing, O thou Holy One of Israel. (Chorus.) Hallelujah.

PSALM lxxxiv.—8. (Chorus.) O Lord God of hosts, hear my prayer; hearken, O God of Jacob. 9. (Verse S.S.T.) Behold, O God our defender, and look upon the face of Thine anointed. 10. (Chorus.) For one day in Thy courts is better than a thousand. 11. (Verse S.S.T.) I had rather be a doorkeeper in the house of my God than to dwell in the tents of ungodliness. 12. (Chorus.) For the Lord God is a light and defence: the Lord will give grace and worship, and no good thing shall He withhold from them that live a godly life. 13. (Verse S.S.A.B.) O Lord God of hosts, blessed is the man that putteth his trust in Thee. (Chorus.) Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost; as it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

TURNER.

PSALM lxxx.—4. (Chorus.) O Lord God of hosts, how long will Thou be angry with Thy people that prayeth? 5. (Verse S.S.A.A.T.B.) Thou feedest them with the bread of tears, and givest them plenteousness of tears to drink. 6. (Chorus.) Thou hast made us a very strife unto our neighbours, and our enemies laugh us to scorn. 7. (Verse S.S.A.A.B.) Turn us again, O God of hosts; shew the light of Thy countenance, and we shall be whole. 18. (Chorus.) And so will we not go back from Thee: O let us live, and we shall call upon Thy Name.

PURCELL.

PSALM lxxxix.—9. (Chorus.) O Lord God of hosts, who is like unto Thee? Thy truth, most mighty Lord, is on every side. 10. Thou rulest the raging of the sea; Thou stillest the waves thereof when they arise. 11. (Verse A.A.T.B.) Thou hast subdued Egypt, and destroyed it: Thou hast scattered Thine enemies abroad with Thy mighty arm. 12. (Chorus.) The heavens are Thine, the earth also is Thine; Thou hast laid the foundation of the world, and all that therein is.

PSALM lxxxviii.—1. (Chorus.) O Lord God of my salvation, I have cried day and night before Thee; O let my prayer enter into Thy presence, incline Thine ear unto my calling. 2. (Verse S.S.A.B.) For my soul is full of trouble, and my life draweth nigh unto hell. 3. (Chorus.) I am counted as one of them that go down to the pit, and I have been even as a man that hath no strength. 4. (Verse A.T.T.B.) Free among the dead, like unto them that are wounded, and lie in the grave, and are cut away from Thy hand. 13. (Chorus.) Unto Thee have I cried, O Lord, and early shall my prayer come before Thee.

PSALM lxxxviii.—1. (Verse T.) O Lord God of my salvation, I have cried day and night before Thee; O let my prayer enter into Thy presence, incline Thine ear unto my calling. 2. (Verse A.T.B.) For my soul is full of trouble; my life draweth nigh unto hell. 5. (Verse B.) Thou hast laid me in the lowest pit; in a place of darkness, and in the deep. 6. (Verse A.T.B.) Thine indignation lieth hard upon me, and Thou hast vexed me with all Thy storms. 9. (Verse A.) My sight faileth me for very trouble: Lord, I have called daily upon Thee, I have stretched out my hands unto Thee. 10. (Verse A.T.B.) Dost Thou shew wonders among the dead? or shall the dead rise up again, and praise Thee? 13. (Chorus.) Unto Thee have I cried, O Lord, and early shall my prayer come before Thee. Amen.

PART I.

PSALM cxxxv.

(Chorus.) O praise the Lord with one consent,
And magnify His Name;
Let all the servants of the Lord
His worthy praise proclaim.

(Verse A.) Praise Him, all ye that in His house
Attend with constant care,
With those that to His utmost court
With humble zeal repair.

(Verse T.) For this our truest interest is Glad hymns of praise to sing,
And with loud songs to bless His Name,
A most delightful thing.

(Verse B.) That God is great we often have
By glad experience found;
And seen how He, with wondrous power,
Above all gods is crowned.

PSALM cxvii.

(Chorus.) With cheerful notes let all the earth
To heaven their voices raise;
Let all, inspired with godly mirth,
Sing solemn hymns with praise.

PART II.

(Verse S.) God's tender mercy knows no bound,
His truth shall ne'er decay.
Then let the willing nations round
Their grateful tribute pay.

PSALM cxlviii.

(Chorus.) Ye boundless realms of joy,
Exalt your Maker's fame;

(Chorus.) Your voices raise,
Ye cherubin
And seraphin,
To sing His praise.
Hallelujah.

533.

PSALM lxviii.—4. (Verse A.T.B.) O sing unto God, and sing praises unto His Name; magnify Him that rideth upon the heavens, as it were upon an horse; praise Him in His Name JAH, and rejoice before Him. 17. (Verse B.) The chariots of God are twenty thousand, even thousands of angels; and the Lord is among them, as in the holy place of Sinai. 18. (Verse A.) Thou art gone up on high, Thou hast led captivity captive, and received gifts for men; even for Thine enemies, that the Lord God might dwell among them. 4. (Verse A.T.B.) O sing unto God, and sing praises unto His Name; magnify Him that rideth upon the heavens, as it were upon an horse; praise Him in His Name JAH, and rejoice before Him. 19. (Chorus.) Praised be the Lord daily. (Verse A.T.B.) Praised be the Lord daily; even the God Who helpeth us, and poureth His benefits upon us. (Chorus.) Praised be the Lord daily. 20. He is our God, even the God of Whom cometh salvation. (Verse A.T.B.) God is the Lord, by Whom we escape death. (Chorus.) Praised be the Lord daily.

JOB xxiii.—3. (Full.) O that I knew where I might find Him, that I might come even to His seat. 8. Behold, I go forward, but He is not there; and backward, but I cannot perceive Him. 9. On the left hand, where He doth work, but I cannot behold Him; He hideth Himself on the right hand. S. JOHN xx.—29. Blessed are they that have not seen, and yet have believed.

Sir W. S. BENNETT.

ISAIAH xlviii.—18. (Verse S. or T.) O that thou hadst hearkened to My commandments! then had thy peace been like a river, and thy righteousness as the waves of the sea. EZEKIEL xxxiii.—11. Turn ye, turn ye, why will ye die? S. LUKE xv.—10. (Chorus.) There is joy in the presence of the angels of God over one sinner that repenteth. PSALM ciii.—13. Like as a father pitieth his own children, even so is the Lord merciful to them that fear Him. S. LUKE xv.—10. There is joy in the presence of the angels of God over one sinner that repenteth. REV. vii.—16. They shall hunger no more, neither thirst any more. 17. And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes.

SULLIVAN.

JOB XXVIII.—12. (Verse S.S.A.T.B.) O where shall wisdom be found? and where is the place of understanding? 13. Man knoweth not the price thereof; neither is it found in the land of the living. 14. The depth saith, It is not in me: and the sea saith, It is not with me. 15. It cannot be gotten for gold, neither shall silver be weighed for the price thereof. 18. No mention shall be made of coral, or of pearls: for the price of wisdom is above rubies. 20. Whence then cometh wisdom? and where is the place of understanding? 21. Seeing it is hid from the eyes of all living. 23. (Chorus.) God understandeth the way thereof, and He knoweth the place thereof. 24. (Verse A.T.B.) For He looketh to the ends of the earth, and seeth under the whole heaven; 25. To make the weight for the winds; and He weigheth the waters by measure. 26. When He made a decree for the rain, and a way for the lightning of the thunder; 27. Then did He see it, and declare it; He prepared it, yea, and searched it out. 28. And unto man He said, Behold, the fear of the Lord, that is wisdom; and to depart from evil is understanding. (Chorus.) The fear of the Lord, that is wisdom; and to depart from evil, that is understanding.

ISAIAH XL.—9. (Chorus.) O Zion, that bringest good tidings, get thee up into the high mountain; O Jerusalem, that bringest good tidings, lift up thy voice with strength; lift it up, be not afraid; say to the cities of Judah, Behold your God! Hallelujah. Amen.

(Chorus S.) O that birth, for ever blessed,
When the Virgin, full of grace,
By the Holy Ghost conceiving
Bare the Saviour of our race:
And the Babe, the world's Redeemer,
First revealed His sacred face.
Evermore and evermore.

(Chorus T.B.) Of the Father's love begotten,
Ere the worlds began to be,
He is Alpha and Omega,
He the source, the ending He:
Of the things that are, that have been,
And that future years shall see.
Evermore and evermore.

ISAIAH xl.—9. (Chorus.) O Zion, that bringest good tidings, get thee up into the high mountain; O Jerusalem, that bringest good tidings, lift up thy voice with strength; lift it up, be not afraid; say to the cities of Judah, Behold your God! Hallelujah. Amen.

PSALM v.—1. (Verse S.) Ponder my words, O Lord; consider my meditation. 2. O hearken Thou unto the voice of my calling, my King and my God, for unto Thee will I make my prayer. 3. My voice shalt Thou hear betimes, O Lord; early in the morning will I direct my prayer unto Thee, and will look up. 4. For Thou art the God that hast no pleasure in wickedness; neither shall any evil dwell with Thee. 5. Such as be foolish shall not stand in Thy sight; for Thou hatest all them that work vanity. 7. But as for me, I will come into Thine house, even upon the multitude of Thy mercy; and in Thy fear will I worship toward Thy holy temple. 8. Lead me, O Lord, in Thy righteousness; make Thy way plain before my face. 12. (Chorus.) And let all them that put their trust in Thee rejoice: they shall ever be giving of thanks, because Thou defendest them; they that love Thy Name shall be joyful in Thee. Amen.

(Chorus.) Praise His awful Name, Who was, and is, and is to come: praise to Him Who giveth immortality: all glory and majesty surround His throne. Worship and adore him! Praise! Glory to God. (Verse S.) Mighty He cometh to judgment; for He shall judge the world in righteousness, and His people with His truth. (Verse B.) Fear thou not, O man! for Thy Redeemer liveth. He that died is risen, and He shall live to all eternity; and He shall reign, and shall conquer all His enemies. (Chorus.) Praise His awful Name, Who was, and is, and is to come: praise to Him Who giveth immortality: all glory and majesty surround His throne. Worship and adore Him! Praise! Glory to God. REV. ii.—2. (Verse B.) I know thy works, and thy labour, and thy patience; for My sake thou hast endured affliction. Yet thy first and chiefest duty thou hast forsaken; and thou art fallen from thy high estate. 5. Repent! and return to thy first work. 10. Be thou faithful unto death, and I will give thee a crown of life. (Chorus.) Praise His awful Name, Who was, and is, and is to come: praise to Him Who giveth immortality: all glory and majesty surround His throne. Worship and adore Him! Praise! Glory to God.

REV. iv.—1. (Verse B.) Come up hither, and I will shew thee what shall be hereafter. 3. (Recit. T.) And lo! a throne was set in heaven, and on the throne One stood. And a rainbow was round about the throne; and the elders knelt before the throne, clad in white raiment: and on their heads were crowns of gold: and from the throne came thunderings, and lightnings, and voices, crying day and night: 8. (Verse T. and Chorus.) Holy, Holy, Holy, Lord God Almighty, Who wast, and Who art, and art to come.

Who is like unto the Lord our God, that hath His dwelling so high, and yet humbleth Himself to behold the things that are in heaven and earth? 6. (Verse A.T.) He taketh up the simple out of the dust, and lifteth the poor out of the mire. 7. That He may set him with the princes, even with the princes of His people. 8. (Verse T.) He maketh the barren woman to keep house, and to be a joyful mother of children. 3. (Chorus.) The Lord's Name is praised, from the rising up of the sun unto the going down of the same. Hallelujah.

SHENTON.

Double Chorus.

Praise the Lord with harp and tongue,
Praise Him all ye old and young;
He is in mercy ever strong.

Praise the Lord through every state,
Praise Him early, praise Him late;
God alone is good and great.

Let the loud hosannas rise
Widely spreading through the skies;
God alone is just and wise.

PART I.

PSALM cl. (Verse S. and Semi-Chorus.) Praise thou the Lord, O my spirit, and my inmost soul praise His great loving-kindness. Praise thou the Lord, O my spirit, and forget thou not all His benefits.

PART II.

PSALM cl. (Chorus.) All men, all things, all that has life and breath, sing to the Lord. Hallelujah. Praise the Lord with lute and harp, in joyful song extol Him, and let all flesh magnify His might and His glory.

(Hymn of Praise.) MENDELSSOHN.

(Verse S. and Chorus.)

Praise ye Jehovah's goodness,
And bless His holy Name;
He hears the meek and lowly,
The proud He brings to shame.

O praise Him, all ye nations.
How blest, how blest are they
Who trust in God, and love Him,
And all His laws obey:

But woe to those who hate Him,
Or say, He hath forgot:
The curse of God is on them,
Destruction is their lot.

(The Mount of Olives.) BEETHOVEN.

593.

PSALM cxxii.—6. (Full.) Pray for the peace of Jerusalem; they shall prosper that love thee. 7. Peace be within thy walls, and plenteousness within thy palaces.

594.

ISAIAH xl.—3. (Verse S.S.A.) Prepare ye the way of the Lord, make straight in the desert a highway for our God. 4. (Verse B.) Every valley shall be exalted, and every mountain and hill shall be made low, and the crooked shall be made straight, and the rough places shall be made plain. 5. (Chorus.) And the glory of the Lord shall be revealed, and all flesh shall see it together. 6. (Verse S.S.) And the voice said, Cry. What shall I cry? All flesh is grass, and the goodliness thereof is as a flower that is in the field. 8. (Chorus.)

The grass withereth, the flower fadeth; but the word of the Lord shall stand fast for ever. 9. (Verse S.S.A.B.) O Zion, that bringest glad tidings, get thee up into the mountains; O Jerusalem, that bringest glad tidings, lift up thy voice with strength; and say unto Judah, Behold thy God! (Chorus.) O Jerusalem, that bringest glad tidings, lift up thy voice with strength; and say unto Judah, Behold thy God!

(Chorus.) Rise again! yea, springing from the tomb
My dust shall rise again and bloom!
And with my spirit
Immortal life inherit;
Hallelujah!

Day will dawn; my Saviour from the skies
Will come, while darkness flies,
And gently speaking,
Will whisper, Day is breaking,
Arise! arise!

(Verse S.A.T.B.) Shall I dream, while sleeping in the tomb,
That Jesu soon will come?
That no more sorrow
Will rise to cloud my morrow,
In heaven my home?

(Chorale and Chorus.) He will take me to His holy sanctuary.
I shall bow, shall kneel before Him,
Shall praise Him and adore Him
For evermore!

PSALM lxix.—1. (Chorus.) Save me, O God, for the waters are come in, even unto my soul. 3. (Verse A.T.B.) I am weary of crying; my throat is dry, my sight faileth me for waiting so long upon my God. 7. (Chorus.) And why? for Thy sake have I suffered reproof; shame hath covered my face. 10. (Verse S.S.A.B.) I wept, and chastened my soul with fasting, and that was turned to my reproof. 13. (Chorus.) But, Lord, I make my prayer unto Thee in an acceptable time. 14. Hear me, O God, in the multitude of Thy mercy; even in the truth of Thy salvation.

BLOW.

PSALM liv.—1. (Full.) Save me, O God, for Thy Name's sake, and avenge me in Thy strength. 2. Hear my prayer, O God, and hearken to the words of my mouth. 3. For strangers are risen up against me, and tyrants, which have not God before their eyes, seek after my soul.

BOYCE and Sir F. A. G. OUSELEY.

ECCLUS. xxxix.—14. (Chorus.) Sing a song of praise; bless the Lord in all His works. 15. Magnify His Name, and shew forth His praise with the songs of your lips and with harps. ii.—11. (Verse S.A.T.B.) The Lord is full of compassion and mercy, long-suffering, and very pitiful; and forgiveth sin, and healeth in time of affliction. 1.—29. (Chorus.) Blessed be the Lord for ever. Hallelujah. Amen.

STAINER.

PSALM lxxi.—1. (Full.) Sing joyfully unto God our strength; sing loud unto the God of Jacob. 2. Take the song, and bring forth the timbrel; the pleasant harp and the viol. 3. PSALM xcvi.—2. (Verse T.) Sing unto the Lord, and praise His Name; be telling of His salvation from day to day. 4. For the Lord is great, and cannot worthily be praised; He is more to be feared than all gods. 6. Glory and worship are before Him, power and honour are in His sanctuary. 11. Let the heavens rejoice, and let the earth be glad; let the sea make a noise, and all that therein is. 13. For He cometh to judge the world with righteousness, and the people with His truth. 10. (Chorus.) Tell it out among the heathen that the Lord is King, and that He shall judge the people righteously.

PSALM xcvi.—2. (Verse A.A.B. and Chorus.) Sing unto the Lord, and praise His Name; be telling of His salvation from day to day. xcii.—4. (Verse 1st A.) Thou, Lord, hast made us glad through Thy works; and we will rejoice in giving praise for the operations of Thy hands. lix.—10. (Verse B.) Thou, O God, hast shewed us Thy goodness plenteously, and hast let us see our desire upon our enemies. xxvii.—11. (Verse 2nd A.) Thou hast been our succour: leave us not, neither forsake us, O God of our salvation. (Chorus.) Leave us not, neither forsake us, O God of our salvation. lxxix.—14. (Verse A.A.B. and Chorus.) So we, that are Thy people, and the sheep of Thy pasture, shall give Thee thanks for ever, and will alway be shewing forth Thy truth from generation to generation.

PSALM xcviii.—1. (Double Chorus.) Sing unto the Lord a new-made song, for He hath done wonders. 2. The victory He hath gotten with His own right hand and His arm. 3. The Lord hath made known His salvation: He hath shewed His righteousness to the heathen. 4. He remembereth His truth and mercy toward all the house of Israel; all the earth's nations have beheld His salvation. 5. Sing to the Lord all the earth; praise His Name and be joyful. 6. Sing with the harp, and praise Him; with harp and psalm be thankful, 7. With the trumpet and the cornet, make a joyful noise to the Lord the King. 8. Let the sea roar, and the fulness thereof; the round world and they that dwell therein. 9. Let the waterfloods be joyful, and let the hills rejoice together in the Lord. 10. He shall come to judgment; He then shall judge the world with righteousness, and the people with truth. He shall come to judgment; He shall judge with truth the world and the people.

(Recit. T.) Sing ye praise, all ye redeemed of the Lord, redeemed from the hand of the foe, from your distresses, from deep affliction; who sat in the shadow of death and darkness. All ye that cry in trouble unto the Lord, sing ye praise, give ye thanks, proclaim aloud His goodness. (Verse.) He counteth all your sorrows in the time of need. He comforts the bereaved with His regard. Sing ye praise, give ye thanks, proclaim aloud His goodness.

(Chorus.) All ye that cried unto the Lord in distress and deep affliction. He counteth all your sorrows in the time of need. PSALM xl.—1. (Verse S.S. and Chorus.) I waited for the Lord; He inclined unto me, He heard my complaint; O blessed are they that hope and trust in the Lord.

S. MATT. xxv.—1.

(Chorale.) Sleepers, wake, a voice is calling;
It is the watchman on the walls,
Thou city of Jerusalem.
For lo, the Bridegroom comes.
Arise and take your lamps. Hallelujah!
Awake; His kingdom is at hand.
Go forth to meet your Lord.

PSALM li.—1. (Verse B.) O God, have mercy upon me, and blot out my transgressions, according to Thy loving-kindness; yea, even for Thy mercy's sake, deny me not. 11. O cast me not away from Thy presence, and take not Thy Spirit from me. 17. Lord, a broken and a contrite heart is offered before Thee. 13. I will speak of Thy salvation. I will teach transgressors, that all the sinners shall be converted unto Thee. 15. Then open Thou my lips, O Lord, and my mouth shall shew forth Thy glorious praise. lxxxvi.—12. (Verse B. and Chorus.) I praise Thee, O Lord my God, with all my heart, for evermore. 13. For great is Thy mercy toward me; and Thou hast delivered my soul from the lowest hell. 35. (Chorus.) The Lord, He is good; He shall dry your tears and heal all your sorrows; for His word shall not decay.

Still slumber lies on every eye;
The woods alone are gently bending,
As though the Lord were passing by.

I feel myself as new created,
Care, pain, and want are chased away;
Restored by sleep I rise elated
To praise my God another day.

This world where joy and grief abideth,
Is not the pilgrim's native clime;
I pass it as a bridge that guideth
To Thee, across the stream of time.

Out of Sion hath God appeared, in perfect beauty. 3. Our God shall come, and shall not keep silence. (Chorus.) There shall go before Him a consuming fire, and a mighty tempest shall be stirred up round about Him. 4. (Verse A.) He shall call the heaven from above, and the earth, that He may judge His people. 6. And the heavens shall declare His righteousness, for God is Judge Himself. 5. (Verse A.T.B.) Gather My saints together unto Me, those that have made a covenant with Me with sacrifice. 14. Offer unto God thanksgiving, and pay thy vows unto the most Highest. 15. And call upon Me in the time of trouble; so will I hear thee, and thou shalt praise Me. (Chorus.) Glory be to God on high, and in earth peace, good will towards men. We praise Thee, we bless Thee, we worship Thee, we glorify Thee, we give thanks to Thee for Thy great glory, O Lord God, heavenly King, God the Father Almighty.

PSALM cxxxii.—14. (Chorus.) The Lord hath chosen Zion; He hath desired it for His habitation. 15. (Verse S.) This is my rest for ever; here will I dwell, for I have desired it. 17. (Chorus.) I will also clothe her priests with salvation, and her saints shall shout aloud for joy.

BRIDGE.

PSALM ciii.—19. (Verse A.) The Lord hath prepared His seat in heaven, and His kingdom ruleth over all. 20. O praise the Lord, ye angels of His, ye that excel in strength, ye that fulfil His commandment, and hearken unto the voice of His words. 21. O praise the Lord, all ye His hosts; ye servants of His that do His pleasure. 22. O speak good of the Lord, all ye works of His, in all places of His dominion; praise thou the Lord, O my soul. (Chorus.) Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost; as it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

PSALM XX.—1. (Full.) The Lord hear thee in the day of trouble; the Name of the God of Jacob defend thee. 2. Send thee help from the sanctuary, and strengthen thee out of Sion. 3. Remember all thy offerings, and accept thy burnt-sacrifice. 4. Grant thee thy heart's desire, and fulfil all thy mind.

EXODUS XV.—3. (Verse B.B.) The Lord is a man of war; Lord is His Name. 4. Pharaoh's chariots and his host hath He cast into the sea; his chosen captains also are drowned in the Red Sea. 18. (Chorus.) The Lord shall reign for ever and ever. 19. (Verse T.) For the horse of Pharaoh went in with his chariots and with his horsemen into the sea, and the Lord brought again the waters of the sea upon them, but the children of Israel went on dry land in the midst of the sea. 18. (Double Chorus.) The Lord shall reign for ever and ever. 20. (Verse T.) And Miriam, the prophetess, the sister of Aaron, took a timbrel in her hand, and all the women went out after her with timbrels and with dances. 21. And Miriam, answered them, (Verse S.) Sing ye to the Lord, for He hath triumphed gloriously. 18. (Double Chorus.) The Lord shall reign for ever and ever. 21. (Verse S.) The horse and his rider hath He thrown into the sea. 18. (Double Chorus.) The Lord shall reign for ever and ever. 21. For He hath triumphed gloriously; the horse and his rider hath He thrown into the sea.

PSALM ciii.—8. (Verse A.T.B.) The Lord is full of compassion and mercy, long-suffering, and of great goodness. 9. He will not alway be chiding, neither keepeth He His anger for ever. 10. He hath not dealt with us after our sins, nor rewarded us according to our wickednesses. 11. (Verse B.) For look how high the heaven is in comparison of the earth; so great is His mercy toward them that fear

Him. 12. Look how wide also the east is from the west; so far hath He set our sins from us. 13. (Verse A.T.B.) Yea, like as a father pitieth his own children, even so is the Lord merciful unto them that fear Him. 14. For He knoweth whereof we are made; He remembereth that we are but dust. 15. The days of man are but as grass, for he flourisheth as a flower of the field. 16. For as soon as the wind goeth over it it is gone, and the place thereof shall know it no more. 17. (Verse and Chorus.) But the merciful goodness of the Lord endureth for ever and ever upon them that fear Him, and his righteousness upon children's children. 18. Even upon such as keep His covenant, and think upon His commandments to do them.

PSALM ciii.—8.

(Verse S.) The Lord is good; fresh acts of grace
His pity still supplies.
His anger moves with slowest pace,
His willing mercy flies.

(Chorus.) By angels in heaven of every degree,
And saints upon earth, all praise be addrest
To God in Three Persons, one God ever blest;
As it has been, now is, and always shall be.

(Verse S.) The longing of the poor and meek
His goodness will supply;
He will revive their fainting hopes,
Who on His strength rely.

Whate'er our various wants require,
With open hand He gives;
And so fulfils the just desire
Of every thing that lives.

Therefore will we the righteous ways
Of Providence proclaim!
Will sing the praise of God most high,
And celebrate His Name.

(Chorus.) By angels in heaven of every degree,
And saints upon earth, all praise be addrest
To God in Three Persons, one God ever blest;
As it has been, now is, and always shall be. Amen.

PART I.

PSALM cv.—26. (Recit. T.) Then sent He Moses, His servant, and Aaron, whom He had chosen. 27. These shewed His signs among them, and wonders in the land of Ham. 29. He turned their waters into blood. EXODUS vii.—18. (Chorus.) They loathed to drink of the river. He turned their waters into blood. PSALM cv.—30. (Verse A.) Their land brought forth frogs, yea, even in their king's chambers. He gave their cattle over to the pestilence; blotches and blains broke forth on man and beast. 31. (Double Chorus.) He spake the word, and there came all manner of flies, and lice in all their quarters. 34. He spake, and the locusts came without number, and devoured the fruit of the ground. 32. (Double Chorus.) He gave them hailstones for rain; fire mingled with the hail ran along upon the ground.

PART II.

PSALM cv.—28. (Chorus.) He sent a thick darkness over the land, even darkness which might be felt. 35. (Chorus.) He smote all the first-born of Egypt, the chief of all their strength. lxxviii.—53. (Chorus.) But as for His people, He led them forth like sheep. cv.

—36. He brought them out with silver and gold; there was not one feeble person among their tribes. 37. (Chorus.) Egypt was glad when they departed, for the fear of them fell upon them.

PART III.

PSALM cvi.—9. (Double Chorus.) He rebuked the Red Sea, and it was dried up. (Double Chorus.) He led them through the deep, as through a wilderness. 11. (Chorus.) But the waters overwhelmed their enemies: there was not one of them left. EXODUS xiv.—31. (Double Chorus.) And Israel saw that great work that the Lord did upon the Egyptians; and the people feared the Lord. (Chorus.) And believed the Lord and His servant Moses.

S. LUKE ii.—8. (Verse S.) There were shepherds abiding in the field, keeping watch over their flocks by night. 9. And, lo, the angel of the Lord came upon them, and the glory of the Lord shone round about them, and they were sore afraid. 10. And the angel said unto them, Fear not: for, behold, I bring you good tidings of great joy, which shall be to all people. 11. For unto you is born this day, in the city of David, a Saviour, which is Christ the Lord. 13. And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host, praising God, and saying: 14. (Chorus.) Glory to God in the highest, and peace on earth, good will towards men. ISAIAH lx.—2. (Verse B.) For, behold, darkness shall cover the earth, and gross darkness the people; but the Lord shall arise upon thee, and His glory shall be seen upon thee. 3. And the Gentiles shall come to thy light, and kings to the brightness of thy rising. ix.—2. The people that walked in darkness have seen a great light, and they that dwell in the land of the shadow of death, upon them hath the light shined. 6. (Chorus.) For unto us a Child is born, unto us a Son is given, and the government shall be upon His shoulder; and His Name shall be called Wonderful, Counsellor, the mighty God, the everlasting Father, the Prince of Peace.

S. LUKE ii.—8. (Verse A.T.B.B. and Chorus.) There were shepherds abiding in the field, keeping watch over their flocks by night. 9. (Verse A.T.B.B.) And, lo, the angel of the Lord came upon them, and the glory of the Lord shone round about them, and they were sore afraid. 10. (Verse T.) And the angel said unto them, Fear not: for, behold, I bring you good tidings of great joy, which shall be to all people. 11. For unto you is born this day, in the city of David, a Saviour, which is Christ the Lord. (Verse A.T.B.B.) Glad tidings of great joy, which shall be to all people. 13. (Verse A.) And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host, praising God, and saying: 14. (Chorus.) Glory to God on high.

(Verse A.T.B.B.) And peace on earth, good will towards men. Rev. xix.—6. For the Lord God omnipotent reigneth. Hallelujah. (Chorus.) For the Lord God omnipotent reigneth. Hallelujah. Isaiah lii.—9. (Chorus.) Break forth into joy: glad tidings of great joy. (Verse A.T.B.) For unto you is born a Saviour, which is Christ the Lord. 9. (Chorus.) Break forth into joy. 7. Thy God reigneth.

Wisdom iii.—1.

(Full.) The righteous souls that take their flight
Far from this world of pain,
In God's paternal bosom blest
For ever shall remain.

To minds unwise they seem to die,
All joyful hope to cease,
While they, secured by faith, repose
In everlasting peace.

For at the great, the awful day,
When Christ descends from high,
With myriads of angelic saints,
They'll meet Him in the sky.

Their God, their Judge, their mighty Lord,
Shall pour redeeming grace,
And call them ever to behold
The brightness of His face.

Rev. vii.—14. (Verse S.A.T.B.) These are they which came out of great tribulation, and have washed their robes and made them white in the blood of the Lamb. 15. (Chorus.) Therefore are they before the throne of God, and serve Him day and night in His temple. (Verse T. and Chorus.) And He that sitteth on the throne shall dwell among them. 16. They shall hunger no more, neither thirst any more; neither shall the sun light on them, nor any heat. 17. (Chorus T.B.) For the Lamb which is in the midst of the throne shall feed them. (Verse S.A.T.B. and Chorus.) And shall lead them unto living fountains of waters; and God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes.

PSALM cxvi.—3. (Verse T.) The sorrows of death had closed all around me, and hell's dark terrors had got hold upon me, with trouble and deep heaviness: but said the Lord, Come, arise from the dead, and awake thou that sleepest, I bring thee salvation. ISAIAH xxi.—11. (Recit.) We called through the darkness, Watchman, will the night soon pass? 12. The watchman only said, Though the morning will come, the night will come also. Ask ye, enquire ye, ask if ye will, enquire ye, return again, ask, Watchman, will the night soon pass? ROM. xiii.—12. (Verse S. and Chorus.) The night is departing, the day is approaching. Therefore let us cast off the works of darkness, and let us gird on the armour of light.

WISDOM iii.—1. (Verse A.) The souls of the righteous are in the hand of God, and there shall no torment touch them. 2. In the sight of the unwise they seem to die; and their departure is taken for misery, but they are in peace. 3. How are they numbered among the children of God, and their lot is among the saints. 4. For though they be punished in the sight of men, yet is their hope full of immortality; and having been a little chastised they shall be greatly rewarded. 5. For God proved them, and found them worthy of Himself. 6. As gold in the furnace hath He tried them, and received them as burnt-offerings. 7. And in the time of their visitation they shall shine, and run to and fro, like the sparks among the stubble. Behold, happy is the man whom God correcteth; for He maketh sore and bindeth up; He woundeth, and His hands make whole. The Lord gave, and the Lord hath taken away; blessed be the Name of the Lord. The Gospel for the Fourth Sunday in Advent.

S. JOHN i.—19. (Verse A.) This is the record of John, when the Jews sent priests and Levites from Jerusalem to ask him, Who art thou? 20. And he confessed, and said plainly, I am not the Christ. (Chorus.) And he confessed, and denied not; and said plainly, I am not the Christ. 21. (Verse A. and Chorus.) And they asked him, What art thou then? Art thou Elias? And he said, I am not. Art thou the Prophet? And he answered, No. 22. (Verse A.) Then said they unto him, What art thou? that we may give an answer unto them that sent us. What sayest thou of thyself? 23. And he said, I am the voice of him that crieth in the wilderness, Make straight the way of the Lord. (Chorus.) And he said, I am the voice of him that crieth in the wilderness, Make straight the way of the Lord.

PSALM ix. 1-11.

(Full.) To celebrate Thy praise, O Lord,
I will my heart prepare,
To all the listening world Thy works,
Thy wondrous works declare.
The thought of them shall to my soul
Exalted pleasure bring,
Whilst to Thy Name, O Thou Most High,
Triumphant praise I sing.

Thou mad'st my haughty foes to turn
Their backs in shameful flight;
Struck with Thy presence, down they fell;
They perished at Thy sight.
Against insulting foes, advanced,
Thou didst my cause maintain;
My right asserting from Thy throne,
Where truth and justice reign.

All those who have His goodness proved,
Will in His truth confide;
Whose mercy ne'er forsook the man
That on His help relied.
Sing praises, therefore, to the Lord,
From Sion, His abode;
Proclaim His deeds, till all the world
Confess no other God.

PSALM civ.—1.

(Chorus.) To God, O my soul, be praises most due;
To the God of my life my song I'll renew;
For Thou, great Jehovah, most glorious dost shine,
In majesty clothèd, in splendour divine.
Invested with light as a robe Thou dost set,
The heavens o'erspread like a curtain of state;
Thy throne to the highest of heavens displayed,
Whose base is as deep as the ocean is laid.

(Verse A.B.) From on high, when descending upborne by the clouds,
As a chariot in darkness His presence He shrouds;
So swift is His motion, so rapid His course,
That the wings of the wind describe not its force.

(Chorus.) The angels of God with the pomp do descend
Surrounding His throne His words to attend;
As ministering spirits most swiftly they fly,
Not lightnings more rapid descend from the sky.
For ever the greatness of God shall endure,
His truth speak His glory, His wisdom most pure:
So guided by mercy, by wisdom, and power,
That the Lord shall rejoice in His works every hour.

PSALM lxv.—1. (Verse A.B.) Unto Thee, O God, do we give thanks; yea, unto Thee do we give thanks. lxi.—12. (Verse B.) As for me, I will patiently abide alway, and will praise Thee more and more. 13. My mouth shall daily speak of Thy righteousness and salvation, for I know no end thereof. 18. (Verse A.) O what great troubles and adversities hast thou shewed me! and yet didst Thou turn and refresh me; yea, and broughtest me from the deep of the earth again. 20. Therefore will I praise Thee and Thy faithfulness, O God, playing upon an instrument of music; unto Thee will I sing upon the harp, O Thou Holy One of Israel. 21. (Verse B.) My lips shall greatly rejoice when I sing unto Thee; and my soul, which Thou hast redeemed. (Chorus.) Hallelujah. Amen.

PSALM xxv.—1. (Recit. S.) Unto Thee, O Lord, do I lift up my soul; O my God, I trust in Thee; let me not be ashamed, let not mine enemies triumph over me. 15. (Verse S.) Turn Thee unto me, and have mercy upon me, for I am desolate and afflicted. 16. The troubles of my heart are enlarged; O bring Thou me out of my distresses. 1. O Lord, my God, I trust in Thee. xlii.—14. (Verse S.T.) Wherefore is thy soul cast down? and why is it disquieted within thee? 15. Hope thou in God, for thou shalt yet praise Him, Him Who is the health of thy countenance and thy God. xci.—2. (Chorus.) The Lord is good; a stronghold in the day of trouble, and He knoweth them that trust in Him.

PSALM xxv.—1. (Verse T. and Chorus.) Unto Thee, O Lord, will I lift up my soul; my God, I have put my trust in Thee; O let me not be confounded, neither let mine enemies triumph over me. 2. For all they that hope in Thee shall not be ashamed; but such as transgress without a cause shall be put to confusion. 3. Shew me Thy ways, O Lord, and teach me Thy paths. 4. Lead me forth in Thy truth, and learn me, for Thou art the God of my salvation; in Thee hath been my hope all the day long. 5. Call to remembrance, O Lord, Thy tender mercies and Thy loving-kindnesses, which have been ever of old. 6. O remember not the sins and offences of my youth, but, according to Thy mercy, think Thou upon me, O Lord, for Thy goodness.

(Choral Recit. S.)

What star in its glory upriseth!
How beautiful and bright is this Child's dawning ray!
From vanity He turneth away;
And all that worldly pride deviseth
He scorneth, as a vain display.

(Choral Recit. A.)

The Day-spring from heaven appeareth,*
While hosts on high sing forth His praise,
The glory of God He declareth,
The Lord is He of endless days;
Light giving them that sit in darkness,
And that dwell in the shadow of death.

(Choral Recit. T.)

Say in Thy wond'rous birth what has Jehovah intended?
Art Thou, blessed Child, from the highest heaven descended?

(Choral Recit. B.)

David's great Son! Thou King of Israel!
O bless Thy servants humbly kneeling,
Thy tender mercy from heaven revealing

(Chorus.)

By Thy name "God with us," Thou great Emmanuel!

(Verse S.S.)

Ever-blessed Child, rejoice,
By heavenly love protected;
Fearing the Lord, heeding His voice,
Shielded by Him, and daily directed!
Far from the world, and gifted by heaven, still go,
Gracing Thy holy birth:
Untainted by sin, while enduring its woe,
Increase in wisdom and increase in worth.

(Chorus.)

O, what lasting joy attendeth
Childhood when taught by heaven;
Childhood the Lord defendeth!

(Double Chorus.)

Lord, let us hear Thy voice, while humbly bending,
Then shall we feel its holy soothing power:
As when the dews of spring descending
Revive each drooping herb and flower.

(Athalie.) MENDELSSOHN.

* The original version by Mr. Bartholomew is as follows:

While Athalie for Baal prepareth
Her incense and her strains of praise,
This child in her presence declareth
That God alone hath endless days.
He, like Elijah, boldly stands forth,
Undismayed by this Jezebel's wrath.
Say, in thy hidden birth, what is by heaven intended?
Art thou, blessed child, from a prophet sire descended?
Daily our fathers witnessed Samuel
Before the tabernacle kneeling,
While heaven's decrees they heard him revealing.
As he came, may you come, to comfort Israel.

ACTS ii.—1. (Verse 1st T.) When the day of Pentecost was fully come, they were all with one accord in one place. 2. (Verse A.T.T.B.) And suddenly there came a sound from heaven, as of a rushing mighty wind, and it filled all the house where they were sitting. 3. (Verse A.) And there appeared unto them cloven tongues, like as of fire, and it sat upon each of them. 4. And they were all filled with the Holy Ghost, and began to speak with other tongues, as the Spirit gave them utterance. 5. (Verse A.T.T.B.) And there were dwelling at Jerusalem devout men, out of every nation under heaven. 6. (Verse 2nd T.) Now when this was noised abroad, the multitude came together, and were confounded, because that every man heard them speak in his own language. 7. (Verse S.A.T.B. and Chorus.) And they were all amazed, and marvelled to see such things, saying to one another, 11. Behold, we hear them speak in our own tongues the wondrous works of God.

PSALM xiii. No. 1.—Verse B. and Chorus.

Why, O Lord, delay for ever
Smiles of comfort to impart?
O, if Thou forget me, never
More shall gladness cheer this heart.

Shall my soul still pine in sorrow,
Still shall foes their insults pour?
Weak and fainting, shall the morrow
Bring Thine aid to me no more?

No. 2.—Verse B. and Chorale.

On Thy love my heart reposes,
Hear me draw my fainting breath;
Raise me lest mine eyelid closes,
Lest I sleep the sleep of death.

Lest my haughty foes prevailing,
Proudly boast, We laid him low.
Lest the scorner hear my wailing,
And he triumph in my woe.

PSALM ii.—1. (Full, for an Eight-part Chorus.) Why rage fiercely the heathen, and the people imagine a vain thing? 2. The kings of the earth they set themselves up, and the rulers take counsel together against the Lord, and against His anointed. 3. Now let us break their bonds asunder, and cast away their cords from us. 4. He that sitteth in the heavens shall laugh them to scorn; the Lord shall deride them. 6. Yet have I set My King on Sion's holy hill, yea, upon My holy hill of Sion. 7. I will declare the law whereof the Lord hath said unto Me, Thou art my Son, this day have I begotten Thee. 8. Ask thou of Me, and I will give thee the heathen for thine inheritance, earth's utmost parts for thy possession. 9. Thou shalt break them in pieces with sceptres of iron, like a potter's vessel shalt thou dash them.

10. Now therefore be ye wise, O kings; ye judges of the earth be instructed. 11. Serve the Lord with fear; rejoice in Him with trembling. 12. Kiss ye the Son, lest He be angry, and ye perish from the right way, for His wrath shall soon rekindle; all that trust in His Name are blessed.

PSALM c.—1.

(Full.) With one consent let all the earth
To God their cheerful voices raise;
Glad homage pay with awful mirth,
And sing before Him songs of praise.

Convinced that He is God alone,
From Whom both we and all proceed,
We, whom He chooses for His own,
The flock that He vouchsafes to feed.

O enter then His temple gate,
Thence to His courts devoutly press.
And still your grateful hymns repeat,
And still His Name with praises bless.

For He's the Lord, supremely good,
His mercy is for ever sure;
His truth, which always firmly stood,
To endless ages shall endure.

HOSEA vii.—13. (Verse Contralto.) Woe unto them who forsake Him: destruction shall fall upon them, for they have transgressed against Him. Though they are by Him redeemed, yet they have spoken falsely against Him. (Recit. and Chorus.) O man of God, help thy people. Among the idols of the Gentiles, are there any that can command the rain, or cause the heavens to give their showers? The Lord our God alone can do these things. (Verse B.) O Lord, Thou hast overthrown Thine enemies and destroyed them. Look down on us from heaven, O Lord; regard the distress of Thy people; open the heavens and send us relief; help, help Thy servant now, O God. (Chorus.) Open the heavens and send us relief; help, help Thy servant now, O God. (Verse B.) Go up, now, child, and look toward the sea. Hath my prayer been heard by the Lord? (Verse S.) There is nothing. The heavens are as brass above me. (Verse B.) When the heavens are closed up because they have sinned against Thee, yet if they pray and confess Thy Name, and turn from their sin when Thou dost afflict them; then hear from heaven, and forgive the sin. Help! send Thy servant help, O God. (Chorus.) Then hear from heaven, and forgive the sin. Help! send Thy servant help, O God. (Verse B.) Go up again, and still look toward the sea. (Verse S.) There is nothing. The earth is as iron under me. (Verse B.) Hearest thou no sound of rain? seest thou nothing arise from the deep? (Verse S.) No; there is nothing. (Verse B.) Have respect to the prayer of Thy servant, O Lord, my God. Unto Thee will I cry, Lord, my rock; be not silent to me, and Thy great mercies remember, Lord. (Verse S.) Behold, a little cloud ariseth now from the waters; it is like a man's hand. The heavens are black with clouds and with wind: the storm rusheth louder and louder. (Chorus.) Thanks be to God, for all His mercies. (Verse B.) Thanks be to God, for He is gracious, and His mercy endureth for evermore. (Chorus.) Thanks be to God: He laveth the thirsty land. The waters gather; they rush along; they are lifting their voices. The stormy billows are high; their fury is mighty. But the Lord is above them, and Almighty.
